A Philosophy Of Gardens:

A Philosophy of Gardens David E. Cooper, 2006-02-02 Why do gardens matter so much and mean so much to people That is the intriguing question to which David Cooper seeks an answer in this book Given the enthusiasm for gardens in human civilization ancient and modern Eastern and Western it is surprising that the question has been so long neglected by modern philosophy Now at last there is a philosophy of gardens Not only is this a fascinating subject in its own right it also provides a reminder that the subject matter of aesthetics is broader than the fine arts that ethics is not just about moral issues but about the good life and that environmental philosophy should not focus only on wilderness to the exclusion of the humanly shaped environment David Cooper identifies garden appreciation as a special human phenomenon distinct from both from the appreciation of art and the appreciation of nature He explores the importance of various garden practices and shows how not only gardening itself but activities to which the garden especially lends itself including social and meditative activities contribute to the good life And he distinguishes the many kinds of meanings that gardens may have from representation of nature to emotional expression from historical significance to symbolization of a spiritual relationship to the world Building on the familiar observation that among human beings creations the garden is peculiarly dependent on the co operation of nature Cooper argues that the garden matters as an epiphany of an intimate co dependence between human creative activity in the world and the mystery that allows there to be a world for them at all A Philosophy of Gardens will open up this subject to students and scholars of aesthetics ethics and cultural and environmental studies and to anyone with a reflective interest in things horticultural

A Philosophy of Gardens David Edward Cooper, 2023 Why do gardens matter so much and mean so much to people Cooper identifies garden appreciation as a special human phenomenon distinct from both the appreciation of art and the appreciation of nature

The Art and Philosophy of the Garden David E. W. Fenner, Ethan Fenner, 2024 In TThe Art and Philosophy of the Garden philosopher David Fenner and botanist Ethan Fenner examine the philosophical ideas lying behind one of the most universal human activities They strip away our assumptions and take a close look at gardens starting with a definition of what a garden is and argue for a particularly way of understanding their aesthetic properties Fenner and Fenner make the case that many gardens have a claim to being legitimate works of art Their comprehensive and accessible discussion contributes to the resurgence of the theory of gardens and gardening and will also interest any thoughtful person who cares about gardens

A Short History of Gardens Gordon Campbell, 2016 Gardens A Short History embraces the beauty and practicality of gardens in history and culture across the world Gordon Campbell also look at variations on the modern garden including the suburban garden the city garden the guerrilla garden and the vegetable garden and considers the future of gardens

Garden History: A Very Short Introduction Gordon Campbell, 2019-02-15 Gardens take many forms and have a variety of functions They can serve as spaces of peace and tranquility a way to cultivate wildlife or as places to develop agricultural resources Globally gardens have inspired comforted and sustained people from all walks of life and since the Garden of Eden many iconic gardens have inspired great artists poets musicians and writers In this Very Short Introduction Gordon Campbell embraces gardens in all their splendour from parks and fruit and vegetable gardens to ornamental gardens and takes the reader on a globe trotting historical journey through iconic and cultural signposts of gardens from different regions and traditions Ranging from the gardens of ancient Persia to modern day allotments he concludes by looking to the future of the garden in the age of global warming and the adaptive spirit of human innovation

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Philosophy In The Garden Damon Young, 2012-12-03 In Philosophy in the Garden Damon Young explores one of literature's most intimate relationships authors and their gardens For some the garden provided a retreat from workaday labour for others solitude's quiet counsel For all it played a philosophical role giving their ideas a new life Philosophy in the Garden reveals the profound thoughts discovered in parks backyards and pot plants It does not provide tips for mowing overgrown cooh grass or mulching a dry Japanese maple It is a philosophical companion to the garden's labours and joys

The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe Yue Zhuang, Alasdair Forbes, Michael Charlesworth, 2025-01-23 The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency In the current times of war pandemic climate change and global anxiety the value of the garden as a sanctuary a space where we can find refuge in a natural environment has taken on new and poignant meanings and has attracted increasing academic interest Multidisciplinary and multicultural in scope this book explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency Examining perspectives from scholars including art historians architects philosophers landscape architects and garden practitioners it reassess the restorative impact of the garden whether understood from an individual cultural or environmental point of view Ranging widely across Asia and Europe its chapters examine ideas narratives and practices from the 4th century Chinese poet Tao Yuanming to the 12th century Iranian polymath Omar Khayyam through to the late 20th century British artist and film maker Derek Jarman Drawing upon traditional Asian philosophies like Buddhism Daoism and Sufism and combining these with more recent western philosophies the aim is to question how the unique virtues of gardens and designed landscapes can help to poise educate and possibly transform attitudes and behaviours in a time of personal environmental or cultural crisis At once poetic scholarly and rigorous this book provides insightful reading for students and researchers in landscape architecture garden history architectural history art history and cultural history

Gardens and Human Agency in the Anthropocene Maria Paula Diogo, Ana Duarte Rodrigues, Ana Simões, Davide Scarso, 2019-04-26 This volume discusses gardens as designed landscapes of mediation between nature and culture embodying different levels of human control over wilderness defining specific rules for this confrontation and staging different forms of human dominance The contributing authors focus on ways of rethinking the garden and its role in contemporary society using it as a crossover platform between nature science and technology Drawing upon their diverse fields of research including History of Science and Technology Environmental Studies Gardens and Landscape Studies Urban Studies and Visual and Artistic Studies the authors unveil various entanglements woven in the past between nature and culture and probe the potential of alternative epistemologies to escape the predicament of fatalistic dystopias that often revolve around the Anthropocene debate This book will be of great interest to those studying environmental and landscape history the history of science and technology historical geography and the environmental humanities Autobiography of a Garden Patterson Webster,2022-07-04

Autobiography of a Garden follows Patterson Webster's twenty five year journey as she transforms a beautiful but conventional country property into a 750 acre landscape that challenges what a garden is or can be A unique personal memoir this book details how a neophyte gardener moved from copying the ideas of other people to learning from them and finally to striking out on her own Combining traditions from French and English eighteenth century gardens with contemporary perspectives Webster communicates concepts and ideas that underpin the garden's design sharing a process that evolved over seasons and years She explores the meaning of creating a garden and the meaning that a garden can create linking ideas about aging and the passage of time to the reality of growth and death in the landscape and thinking through how art in a garden can reframe questions of memory and our relationship to nature Using the history of the property as a framework Webster considers the impact made by those who lived on the land before her the Abenaki the early settlers the cottagers the farmers the US southerners who came to Quebec to avoid the summer heat and the northerners who defeated them in the Civil War With engaging personal anecdotes she describes the thinking behind each part of the garden and the examples that guided her the mishaps and successes she encountered and her plans for the future Beautifully photographed and full of inspirational ways of thinking about gardens and gardening Autobiography of a Garden blends history horticulture and art encouraging readers to make their own surroundings more beautiful and more meaningful

Luis Frois: First Western Accounts of Japan's Gardens, Cities and Landscapes Cristina Castel-Branco, Guida Carvalho,2019-09-28 This book focuses on Luis Frois a 16th century Portuguese Jesuit and chronicler who recorded his impressions of Japanese gardens cities and building practices tea drinking rituals Japan's unification efforts cultural traditions and the many differences between Europe and Japan in remarkable manuscripts almost lost to time This research also draws on other Portuguese descriptions from contemporary sources spanning the years 1543 1597 later validated by Japanese history and iconography Importantly explorer Jorge Alvares recorded his experiences of discovery prompting St Francis Xavier to visit Japan in 1549 thus ushering in the Christian Century in Japan During this long period of accord and reciprocal curiosity the Portuguese wrote in excess of 1500 pages of letters to European Jesuits that detail their impressions of the island nation not to mention their observations of powerful public figures such as Oda Nobunaga Toyotomi Hideyoshi and Sen no Rikyu In addition to examining these letters the authors translated and researched early descriptions of 23 gardens in Kyoto and Nara and 9 important cities later visited by the authors sketched photographed and compared with the imagery painted on 16th century Japanese screens However the data gathered for this project was found mainly within five large volumes of Frois Hist ria do Jap o 2500 pages and his Treaty on Contradictions two incomparable anthropological works that were unpublished until the mid 20th century for reasons detailed herein His volumes continue to be explored for their insightful observations of places cultural practices and the formidable historical figures with whom he interacted Thus this book examines the world s first globalization efforts that resulted in profitable commerce the introduction of Portuguese firearms that changed Japan s history scientific advances religious expansion and many artistic exchanges that have endured the centuries
