Questioning the Language of Improvement and Reform in Education Nicole Mockler, Susan Groundwater-Smith, 2018-05-11 Questioning the Language of Improvement and Reform in Education challenges the language used in education by linking the language of both the public and professional domains with the changing intentions of the governance of education Exploring various issues which embody the many manifestations of the manner in which strident conservative language has captured the public view of education the book covers topics such as the importance of language in the context of educational practice the media's portrayal of teachers globally the role of students in the face of curriculum reform and the language used in educational policy worldwide The book addresses the ways in which the words improvement and reform have been appropriated and hollowed out by policymakers in order to justify globalised education policies Using international case studies and reports the authors argue that the employment of specific words masks the reality that new educational policies are regressive and require re-examination while perpetuating the illusion that progressive educational practice is being brought to the fore Questioning the Language of Improvement and Reform in Education is a fascinating and original take on this topic which will be of great interest to educational practitioners policymakers and linguists

Improving Schools Shaun Rawolle, Muriel Wells, Louise Paatsch, Russell Tytler, Coral Campbell, 2015-10-22 This unique book explores school improvement policy from its translation into national contexts and school networks to its implementation in leader and teacher practices in individual schools and classrooms within this network of schools and its impact on students learning It draws on multiple conceptual and theoretical resources to explore the complexities attached to a school improvement process in a network of schools in Australia These conceptual and theoretical resources include discourse practice representation and network concepts common to both policy research as well as studies of leadership and classroom practice They lead to a more detailed understanding of the intersections between educational policy and intervention processes and the complex reality of school processes and teaching practices In the book we trace the implementation of school improvement policies through its multiple phases levels and contexts Our data collection and analysis methods draw on a variety of perspectives in the way different players perceive their roles and the nature of the initiative and the ways in which these intersect The research findings are used to seek productive approaches to school improvement that combine policy integrity with local flexibility The book contributes to the school improvement literature through its exploration of tensions between global and systemic settings and local practices and histories

Empowered Educators in Australia Dion Burns, Ann McIntyre, 2017-02-22 BEST PRACTICES FROM AUSTRALIA'S HIGH PERFORMING SCHOOL SYSTEMS Empowered Educators in Australia is one volume in a series that explores how high performing educational systems from around the world achieve strong results The anchor book Empowered Educators How High Performing Systems Shape Teaching Quality Around the World is written by Linda Darling Hammond and colleagues with contributions from the authors of this volume The authors of Empowered Educators in Australia take an in depth look at the policies and practices surrounding teaching quality in two different states New South Wales NSW and Victoria NSW offers significant support for government schools in areas such as staffing and teacher professional development Victoria operates a highly devolved school system Each provides a contrasting view of how federal and state policies combine to shape learning outcomes for students in Australia The interplay between state and federal policy characterizes an intriguing centralizing decentralization Initiatives to create national curricular teaching and teacher education standards all sit in balanced tension with a movement towards greater devolution of authority to schools Together the NSW and Victoria case studies provide insights into policies that can support high quality teaching in a federal education system Australia s current educational reforms place increasing emphasis on issues of teaching quality reshaping teaching as a standards based evidence informed profession and one that seeks to foster collegiality and professional exchange These reforms encompass many aspects of a system that supports teaching quality and highlight the way teachers are trained how they are inducted into the teaching profession and supported with mentors the professional learning they receive how they are appraised on their work and the career pathways for teachers

Reppin' Keith L. Camacho, 2021-05-27 Explores the critical insights and creative energies of Pacific Islander youth From hip hop artists in the Marshall Islands to innovative multimedia producers in Vanuatu to racial justice writers in Utah Pacific Islander youth are using radical expression to transform their communities Exploring multiple perspectives about Pacific Islander youth cultures in such locations as Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Hawai i and Tonga this cross disciplinary volume foregrounds social justice methodologies and programs that confront the ongoing legacies of colonization incarceration and militarization The ten essays in this collection also highlight the ways in which youth throughout Oceania and the diaspora have embraced digital technologies to communicate across national boundaries mobilize sites of political resistance and remix popular media By centering Indigenous peoples creativity and self determination Reppin vividly illuminates the dynamic power of Pacific Islander youth to reshape the present and future of settler cities and other urban spaces in Oceania and beyond

Personalising Learning in Open-Plan Schools Vaughan Prain, Peter Cox, Craig Deed, Debra Edwards, Cathleen Farrelly, Mary Keeffe, Valerie Lovejoy, Lucy Mow, Peter Sellings, Bruce Waldrip, 2015-11-03 How can widely acknowledged challenges facing regional secondary schools with high concentrations of low SES students ineffectual curricula and poor levels of student engagement attendance and wellbeing be addressed In this book we report on key outcomes of the Bendigo Education Plan that aimed to improve the academic attainment and wellbeing of 3000 regional secondary students This Plan entailed rebuilding four Years 7 10 colleges and developing a differentiated and personalised curriculum with teachers team teaching in open plan settings We analyse how and why teachers and students adapted to these new practices We focus on both generic changes in the schools around the use of ICTs and the organisation of the curriculum and on specific approaches to teaching and learning in English mathematics

science social studies and studio arts This book provides research based guidelines on how the curriculum can be renewed and enacted effectively in these and like schools In analysing a large scale attempt to address the challenge of making learning personalised and meaningful for this cohort of students our book addresses larger questions about quality secondary curriculum and successful teacher professional learning support
