Authoritarian States, 2015 Charting a New Course Fernando Henrique Cardoso, 2001 For decades F H Cardoso

has been among the most influential of Latin American scholars his writings on globalization dependency and politics having reached a world wide audience This book the third by Cardoso to appear in English is the first to incorporate essays written during his tenure as president of Brazil The transformation of Cardoso s economic and political approach is nowhere better documented than in this broad ranging collection of writings that span Cardoso s early theoretical work through his pragmatic agenda for Brazil in a rapidly changing world economy The book also traces the development of one of the world s leading intellectuals who took theory into the arena of policy when he became head of state The Course of German

History A.J.P. Taylor, 2024-11-01 One of A J P Taylor s best known books The Course of German History is a notoriously idiosyncratic work Composed in his famously witty style yet succinct to the point of sharpness this is one of the great historian s finest if more controversial accomplishments As Taylor himself noted the history of the Germans is a history of extremes It contains everything except moderation He could of course simply be referring to his own book The Present

as History Nermeen Shaikh, 2007 The contributors to this volume treat the United States as an object to be historically and politically scrutinized rather than as the norm from which all else is to be evaluated Their essays assess the Third World through its history of colonialism and neocolonialism rather than focusing on issues of culture and morality History in Uniform Katharine E. McGregor, 2007 Under the New Order regime 1967 98 the Indonesian military sought to monopolise the production of official history and control its contents The goal was to validate the political role of the armed forces condemn communism and promote military values A detailed examination of the Indonesian military s image making under Suharto A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman, Esther Brito Ruiz, 2024-11-01

This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether Divided into four thematic sections Genocide and Imperialism War and Genocide State Repression Military Dictatorships and Genocide and Human Caused Famine Attrition and Genocide A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents including case studies from Biafra Yemen Argentina Russia China and Bengal They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe
