Adventures Cooper Pugsley R Pope:

Shot at Dawn Julian Putkowski, Julian Sykes, 1989 I Could not look on Death which being known Men led me to him blindfold and Alone Epitaphs of the war The Coward Thus in two short bitter lines Rudyard Kipling summed up a series of events that are among the most shameful and inglorious in all British history The executions by firing squad of some 350 members of the British and Empire forces during the First World War Based on years of painstaking research this is the first book to give complete details of all these executions including names of victims their crimes the circumstances dates and places of execution and of burial where known names of regiments and other units and victims personal histories and private circumstances where known The authors demonstrate the ineptness ignorance and unfairness of the British court martial system at the time and how frequently condemned men from almost every regiment and corps in the army were proved to have been formerly brave soldiers who had simply cracked under the pressure of trench warfare These men were judicially killed as a lesson to other soldiers who it was thought might themselves crack In the event many of the victims went to their deaths with unbelievable courage and dignity as eye witness accounts in this book show Here too are details of how next of kin of executed men were hoodwinked into believing that their men had died in action a system of cover up which persists to this day
