Advertising and Societies Katherine Toland Frith, 2012 Dynamics of International Advertising Barbara Mueller, 2004 Dynamics of International Advertising brings to light the unique challenges in developing and implementing successful campaigns globally With a balance of theoretical and practical perspectives this text takes the reader inside the dynamics of advertising as it functions within the international marketing mix Filled with current examples and case studies Dynamics of International Advertising addresses the key issues that advertisers must keep in mind to create effective communication programs for foreign markets cultural norms and values political environments economic policies social contexts and more Both the process and product of international advertising are addressed from research and strategy development to creative execution and media planning This is an ideal textbook for upper division undergraduate and graduate students in specialized courses dealing with international advertising or marketing It is also an effective supplemental text for introductory advertising marketing or mass communications courses seeking to expand coverage of the international dimension The text should prove useful to practitioners of international advertising whether on the client side or within the advertising agency And finally researchers of international advertising and marketing will also find the text a valuable resource

The Handbook of International Advertising Research Hong Cheng, 2014-01-21 This timely handbook brings academic excellence to international advertising research in the form of 28 contributions from over 40 leading scholars The handbook's comprehensive treatment highlights existing knowledge reports major findings across the subject and recommends directions and agendas for future research Fills the existing gap between the rapid growth in scholarly research on international advertising and the pressing need for more high quality research in the area Covers 28 major areas in international advertising research with contributions from more than 40 international advertising scholars based in over 10 countries or territories Comprehensive treatment includes the history of international advertising audiences and media strategy and execution content effects regulation ethics and advertising education Highlights existing knowledge in international advertising reports major findings on a broad range of topics and offers expert recommendations on directions for future research Contributors represent the most highly respected academics among international advertising researchers Contemporary Issues in Global Business Dr. B. Sowmya Satish, 2015* Social and Environmental Issues in Advertising Sukki Yoon, Sangdo Oh, 2018-10-11 In the past few decades attention has turned to the need to apply commercial marketing concepts knowledge and techniques to promote goods services and actions that enhance consumer well being and social welfare through socially and environmentally responsible advertising for example recycling promotions Critics argue however that for profit advertisers who endorse social responsibility are inherently serving commercial purposes and diluting the value of socially responsible advertising Scholars in many fields advertising marketing communications and psychology explore ways to encourage consumers companies and policymakers to adopt socially responsible behaviours and to provide theoretical and practical insights regarding effective applications of pro social and pro environmental marketing messages This book comprises ten chapters that contribute to advertising theory research and practice by providing an overview of current and diverse research that compares contrasts and reconciles conflicting views regarding social and environmental advertising uncovering individual differences in perception of advertising messages and their consequences for social and environmental behaviours reconciling societal and business interests identifying a message factor that determines eco friendly behaviours and identifying source factors that enhance and weaken advertising effectiveness This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Advertising Advertising, Society, and Consumer Culture Roxanne Hovland, Joyce M. Wolburg, 2014-12-18 Designed as a core textbook for courses in Advertising and Society Advertising Society and Consumer Culture develops an integrated perspective that gives students a framework for understanding past present and future issues in advertising communications Chapter contents cover the entire range of social political cultural regulatory and economic issues that surround advertising and its role in modern society The many social issues addressed include advertising and gender stereotyping advertising to vulnerable audiences and the distribution of wealth in consumer society Advertising Society and Consumer Culture intertwines the development of the consumer culture with its coverage of the historical political regulatory and ethical issues of advertising It includes clear comprehensive tables that chronicle historical developments and key legal cases The text is readable for undergraduates but provides enough depth to serve as a graduate level text Including extensive notes and a bibliography it can be adopted independently or alongside its companion volume Readings in Advertising Society and Consumer Culture The Advertising

Handbook Helen Powell,Jonathan Hardy,Sarah Hawkin,Iain Macrury,2013-09-13 The Advertising Handbook is a critical introduction to the practices and perspectives of advertising It explores the industry and those who work in it and examines the reasons why companies and organizations advertise how they research their markets where they advertise and in which media the principles and techniques of persuasion and their effectiveness and how companies measure their success It challenges conventional wisdom about advertising power and authority to offer a realistic assessment of its role in business and also looks at the industry s future The third edition offers new material and a new organising framework whilst continuing to provide both an introduction and an authoritative guide to advertising theory and practice It is shaped to meet the requirements interests and terms of reference of the most recent generation of media and advertising students as well as taking account of some of the most recent academic work in the field and of course contemporary advertising innovations

The role of advertising in Indian women's desire to be fair Christina Görke,2014-10-01 This study deals with the situation in India in particular with the situation of young Indian women Ever since advertisers and multinational companies discovered India s remarkable aspiration for light complexions more and more fairness products and most importantly advertisements for fairness products have been established on the Indian market The desire for fair skin in India is a culturally embedded issue but advertising might have reinforced it
