Bernard Lugan:

THE LAST PRISONER OF ARUSHA Augustin Ngirabatware, 2024-11-22 In this book Augustin Ngirabatware recounts He concludes his presentation and his analysis by nourishing the hope of seeing something of what he thinks is a true international criminal justice ringing in the ears of the main stakeholders of this justice in the Rwandan tragedy of 1994

Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisée Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church s role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church s image and people s identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation

Intent to Deceive Linda Melvern, 2020-02-25 A shocking expos of genocide denial It is twenty five years since the 1994 genocide of the Tutsi of Rwanda when in the course of three terrible months more than 1 million people were murdered In the intervening years a pernicious campaign has been waged by the perpetrators to deny this crime with attempts to falsify history and blame the victims for their fate Facts are reversed fake news promulgated and phoney science given credence Intent to Deceive tells the story of this campaign of genocide denial from its origins with those who planned the massacres With unprecedented access to government archives including in Rwanda Linda Melvern explains how from the moment the killers seized the power of the state they determined to distort reality of events Disinformation was an integral part of their genocidal conspiracy The g nocidaires and their supporters continue to peddle falsehoods These masters of deceit have found new and receptive audiences have fooled gullible journalists and unwary academics With their seemingly sound research methods the Rwandan g nocidaires continue to pose a threat especially to those who might not be aware of the true nature of their crime The book is a testament to the survivors who still live the horrors of the past Denial causes them the gravest offence and ensures that the crime continues This is a call for justice that remains perpetually delayed Judging War Crimes and Torture Yves Beigbeder, 2006-09-01 This volume shows that even democratic countries like France but not France alone can commit war crimes crimes against humanity and even be accomplices in genocides However past crimes must be recalled and exposed particularly if they have been hidden covered by amnesties and not judicially punished They must be visible as part of a country s history in order to ensure that they are not repeated Rwanda Before the Genocide J. J. Carney, 2016-07 Rwanda Before the Genocide analyzes the intersection of ethnic discourse Rwandan politics and Catholic social teaching during the critical final decade of Belgian colonial rule exploring the many threaded roots of the ethnic and political mythos that culminated with the 1994 genocide

Urban World History Luc-Normand Tellier, 2009 No detailed description available for Urban World History African Football, Identity Politics and Global Media Narratives Tendai Chari, Nhamo A. Mhiripiri, 2016-02-10 This edited volume addresses key debates around African football identity construction fan cultures and both African and global media narratives Using the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa as a lens it explores how football in Africa is intimately bound up with deeper social cultural and political currents Islam Instrumentalized Jean-Philippe Platteau, 2017-06-06 In this book economist Jean Philippe Platteau addresses the question does Islam the religion of Muslims bear some responsibility for a lack of economic development in the countries in which it dominates In his nuanced approach Platteau challenges the widespread view that the doctrine of Islam is reactionary in the sense that it defends tradition against modernity and individual freedom He also questions the view that fusion between religion and politics is characteristic of Islam and predisposes it to theocracy He disagrees with the substantivist view that Islam is a major obstacle to modern development because of a merging of religion and the state or a fusion between the spiritual and political domains But he also identifies how Islam s decentralized organization in the context of autocratic regimes may cause political instability and make reforms costly Reconstructing the Authoritarian State in Africa George Kieh, Jr., Pita Agbese, 2013-10-01 This work seeks to examine the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa and to suggest ways in which the states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted In 1990 a wave of euphoria greeted the third wave of democratization that swept across the African Continent The repression wearied subalterns were hopeful that the third wave would have set into motion the process of democratically reconstituting the authoritarian state on the continent More than two decades thereafter although some progress has been made by and large the authoritarian state remains the dominant construct in the region Even in some of the countries in which democratic transitions have taken place the process of democratic consolidation remains an elusive quest as these states are sandwiched between authoritarianism and democracy Against this background the purpose of this book is to examine the travails of the authoritarian state in Africa including the Herculean task to democratically reconstruct it In order to do this six of Africa s perennial authoritarian states Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Egypt Liberia Rwanda and Uganda are used as the case studies The book has two major objectives First the various chapters probe the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa Second the chapters suggest ways in which the various authoritarian states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted Une jeune femme sur un bateau ivre
