The Outlaw's Bride Ruth Ann Nordin, Lillian Christian had a simple plan All she had to do was sneak out of Virginia before her brother forced her to marry a man in order to get money She was nothing but a commodity for her brother to sell and she wasn t going to have any part in it So she answered Charles mail order bride ad and headed for an untamed land where she could take on a whole new identity But plans don t always go as expected On her way to marry her intended a group of masked outlaws descend upon the stagecoach And they are looking specifically for her Mic has a plan of his own The last thing Mic Gray wants to do is scare Lillian but kidnapping her is the only way to stop her from marrying Charles Mic s face might be on the Wanted posters but Charles is the real criminal in town Only Mic s lack of money and influence prevents him from proving it The only way to keep Lillian safe is to become her husband All he has to do is convince her he s worth marrying Please note This is the rewrite of The Stagecoach Bride that I wrote with Stephannie Beman

Make Believe Bride Ruth Ann Nordin, 2018-03-24 Lord Whitney is intelligent rich and good looking But he s also boring Despite his notable attributes he has nothing worthwhile to contribute to the gentlemen he would love to establish friendships with

One thing he's noticed is that all the gentlemen around him are getting married. So in order to have something in common with them, he does something he never thought he'd do: he lies about being betrothed. His ploy works. For the first time in his life, gentlemen are finally paying attention to him. Soon, however, they start asking him questions about the wonderful lady he's going to marry. It comes to a point where he can no longer keep up the lie. He has to find a lady to present to them. As fate would have it, Lady Stacey happens to be in the right place at the right time, and he manages to convince her to play along with his scheme. In return for playing the part of his betrothed, he will secure safe passage for her and her mother out of London. But as time passes, he begins to wonder if there's more to their ruse than meets the eye. Will their deception bloom into a love that is real, or will it be as make-believe as it was when they met.

Nelly's Mail Order Husband Ruth Ann Nordin, Valentine Silverton has enjoyed comfort and luxury his entire life. Then all at once the family fortune vanishes, and he's a pauper. The only recourse he has is to find a wealthy heiress. But he doesn't want to just find just any wealthy heiress. He wants to find one he can fall in love with. Since there are no suitable prospects in his area, he takes his friend's advice and becomes a mail order husband. Nelly Larson grew up on a farm and she loves everything about it. She loves the life so much, in fact, that she got her own homestead. The last thing she wants is to be strapped to one of the men in town who think her place is in the kitchen. She's going to keep her independence, and keeping her independence will require her to avoid marriage at all costs. Nelly's sisters, however, can't believe Nelly will truly be happy if she doesn't get married. Romance, after all, is one of life's most wonderful experiences. When they come upon Valentine's ad, they know he'll be perfect for her. So they take matters into their own hands and answer his ad on Nelly's behalf. Valentine thinks Nelly is the one answering his ad, and at once he's intrigued by her. He has no idea what a homestead is, but he assumes that a young woman who owns land and runs her own business must have lots of money. Excited, he runs off to Omaha to marry her. The day comes when the two meet, and it's at that time they realize they've been set up. Since Valentine has no money, he can't leave Omaha. He has to marry Nelly. Even if she doesn't have much, she has a place to live and food to eat. In exchange for marriage, he promises Nelly he won't hinder her independence. Thankfully, she agrees to marry him. But Valentine kind of likes Nelly, and he's determined to show her that some things are worth giving up total independence for, and love just happens to be one of them.

The Earl's

Then, shortly before the wedding, the duke committed suicide, citing her for the reason he couldn't go on living anymore. Marriage to a gentleman she barely knows is a risky venture, but with nothing to lose, she accepts Lord Wright's hasty proposal. Grant Carnel, Lord Wright, did everything he could to make everyone think he had a wonderful first marriage. He did it to protect the young child that isn't really his.
