and ever growing harmful environmental impacts from urban areas necessitate a sustainability transformation in cities. However, cities are also centers of wealth creation and consumption which both drive environmental degradation. It is clear that cities need to re-establish themselves as low energy, low carbon systems, but the transformation is complex in many ways and time is running out. This Special Issue, Energy Efficient Cities of Today and Tomorrow, seeks to provide a more profound understanding of the future energy requirements of urban areas and low energy and low carbon cities. The published papers range from macro level assessments of cities manifesting themselves as forerunners in their environmental work to micro level studies of pro environmental attitudes and their impacts on individual emissions, a carbon footprint, impacts of sharing of goods and services.

The Sweden File Bruce Stevens Proctor, 2019-09-03. What leads a top secret war policy insider to desert during the Vietnam War? In the case of Bruce Proctor, it was reconnaissance photos/images which showed the bombing of civilian villages in Southeast Asia despite the administration's claims otherwise. Appalled by his discovery, Bruce suddenly quit his job at the Defense Intelligence Agency. To avoid the draft, he joined the Air National Guard, but his unit was activated for service in Vietnam. Rather than fight in an immoral war, Bruce went AWOL, seeking refuge in Sweden. A hybrid memoir set against a half century across two continents, The Sweden File is composed of letters to and from Bruce from 1968 to 1972, his reminiscences forty years later, and his brother Alan's reflections in 2014. Despite his best attempts, Bruce was never able to learn Swedish, necessary for employment, and he struggled with poverty, a series of difficult jobs, drugs, and alcohol. After four years of trying to fit into a foreign culture, Bruce and his wife emigrated to Canada. At a time when the US has been in constant conflict for eighteen years longer than the Vietnam War, Bruce's musings on peace, war, and government deception have a vital urgency.

Walls: Resisting the Third Reich – One Woman's Story Hiltgunt Zassenhaus, 2021-04-18. Walls is the story of how a young German woman, acting alone with the cooperation of a handful of other individuals in wartime Germany, brought sustenance and hope to thousands of political prisoners of the Third Reich. When so many of us seem crippled by the numbness we see in our own society, Walls reminds us of the power of individual conscience. The Nation: I want my friends to read this book. I want to fix them with a glittering eye like the Ancient Mariner and force them to sit down and start reading. How else can they learn that a book about wartime Germany and concentration camp horror can be enthralling, inspiring, and even possess charm? Pamela Marsh, Christian Science Monitor. The autobiography of Hiltgunt Zassenhaus pierced through the malaise and oppressive apathy of our society to affect me more profoundly than I recall a book ever having done before. Genesis II: The suspenseful and dramatic story of one courageous woman's bold deception of the Gestapo. Book of the Month Club News. This book releases its own inspiring energies. In times that call for courage ever more courage, Walls will remind any human heart of its own worst dangers and its best possibilities. National Catholic News Service. Set down in cool reflection but charged with inescapable emotion. The New Yorker. Education Policy Strategies Today and Tomorrow Around the "Mare Balticum" Max Høgeforster, Baltic Sea Academy, 2011. Knowledge and education are key factors for a successful future in modern globalised times This applies especially to the resource poor Baltic Sea region and its small and medium sized enterprises Without excellent qualified staff and executives they cannot compete on a global scale The authors of this book scientists entrepreneurs and journalists address the main problems of our education systems ranging from schools to vocational training and universities But not only do they analyse these diverse systems but also develop strategies for successfully meeting the challenges ahead of us
