

Abstract

- The essay will consider all the questions and will be worth the greatest of your comments on why.
- It's really like the final exam. Since the questions in the questions/answers are a separate sheet of paper, it's best to leave the final exam questions alone until you have finished. There will be no corrections on the final and the answers will be provided to you after the final.
- The essay will challenge you to think about the questions, then you will be able to answer them. The questions are provided to you after the final.
