courts sprang up in Philadelphia neighborhoods thousands of young men devoted their teenage years trying to become superstars During the 1950s and 1960s players like Tom Gola Ernie Beck and Dippy Carosi and later Hal Lear and Wilt Chamberlain recreated the game of basketball into an East Coast love affair In May of 1949 at age thirteen author Doug Leaman fell in love with basketball and his quest for stardom revolved around a pair of sneakers a ball and the swishing of a net From that day forward the art of basketball dominated every aspect of his life In Swish he tells how he devoted his first two years on the court working on his two handed set shot and how after researching his goal Leaman was able to shoot the eyes out of the basket during his high school college and service time in the Marine Corps Leaman shares his story to show how a young athlete who participates in sports can achieve tremendous results by hanging in there and never giving up He believes that although most athletes won't become superstars or all Americans the competitive experiences the drive and the determination to excel enriches one's life fully Coaching Basketball's Blocker-Mover Motion Offense Kevin

Sivils, 2014-08-27 Almost since the day Dr Naismith invented basketball the argument over which approach to offense set plays or continuities versus rules based free lance offense has been raging Motion offense has been used by some of the most innovative and successful coaches in the game Don Meyer 923 career wins Bobby Knight 902 wins Dean Smith 879 wins and Mike Krzyzewski 910 wins still active and Coach Dick Bennett the innovator responsible for the Blocker Mover version of motion offense Motion offense's advocates love the offense because once players have learned it they can attack any defense players love the freedom motion offense gives them to play the game it is difficult to scout there is a high degree of carryover from one season to the next it can be used at any level of play it can be adapted to any personnel allowing continuity from one season to the next If motion offense has led to so much success why don't more coaches adopt the offense Some reasons include fear of loss of control over the offense confusion over how to teach motion offense concern over how to make adjustments during a game the belief the nature of the offense is too confusing for players and coaches confusion due to the rules based approach to offense versus the predetermined approach with set plays quick hitters and continuity offenses Using Blocker Mover Motion Offense will allow you to run motion offense and fix the problems common to the offense including eliminate standing by increasing cutting and screening generate more good shots by controlling where how and who takes the shots eliminate bad spacing with Blocker Mover alignments eliminate player confusion about who should set screens and who should be a cutter Coaching Basketball's Blocker Mover Motion Offense Winning With Teamwork and Fundamentals addresses all of these issues There are lots of books on motion offense but many do not address the concerns that coaches interested in adopting motion offense have The Blocker Mover system provides structure without eliminating the advantages of rules based offense providing a coach with the means to maintain a degree of control over the offense a method for easily making adjustments during a game just to name a few of the benefits of Blocker Mover motion offense Within Coaching Basketball's Blocker Mover Motion Offense's 262 pages including 250 illustrations and 50 photographs 16
