Access Accents London Cockney:

Secrets from the Casting Couch Nancy Bishop, 2009-08-19 This is a practical workbook written from the casting director's point of view that teaches actors the craft of film casting in front of camera

Spatializing Literacy Research and Practice Kevin M. Leander, Margaret Sheehy, 2004 Current research on literacy often conceives space as a container within which social practice occurs In sharp contrast this edited collection argues that literary practice and social space are produced in relation to one another Contributors to this collection consider how a spacial analysis provides entirely new information for the interpretation of literary practice Traversing geography and literacy studies drawing on Bakhtin Deleuze and Guattari Lefebvre Soja and a range of other theorists contributors analyze space literacy relations in diverse settings including classrooms prisons streets institutional programs homes and the popular media

British Cultural Identities Mike Storry, Peter Childs, 2022-08-31 The sixth edition of British Cultural Identities assesses the degree to which being British impinges on the identity of the many people who belong to contemporary Britain Twenty first century British identity is analysed through the various and changing ways in which people who live in the UK position themselves and are positioned by their culture Using examples from contemporary and popular culture each chapter covers one of eight intersecting themes including places and peoples education work and leisure gender sex and the family youth culture and style class and politics ethnicity and language religion and heritage This new edition is fully updated to include the latest information on Britain in the 2020s It explains the influences that shape British identities and outlines the important current debates stemming from cultural social and political change Considering contemporary touchstones and recent national statistics the contributors place modern British life in the context of the activities events and society found in the UK across recent decades The book is the perfect introductory text for students of contemporary British society containing photographs tables timelines discussion questions cultural examples and suggestions for further resources at the end of each chapter

The History of Late Modern Englishes Keith Johnson, 2021-05-26 The History of Late Modern Englishes provides an accessible and student friendly introduction to the history of the English language from the beginning of the eighteenth century up until the present day Taking an activity based approach this text ensures that students learn by engaging with the fascinating evolution of this language rather than by simply reading about it The History of Late Modern Englishes Covers the development of Englishes around the world not only in the British Isles but also in the United States Canada India Singapore Australia New Zealand and Melanesia as well as in other countries around the world where English is used as a lingua franca Accommodates the needs of both native and non native speakers of English with helpful features such as a glossary of key terms and questions to guide the reader through the book Includes activity sections and discussion points to help students engage with the text Is accompanied by e resources which include further activities and additional coverage of points of interest in the book Written by an experienced teacher and author this book is an essential course textbook for any module on the history of English and the perfect accompaniment to the author's own The History of Early English Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio-political consequences of the migrants' insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants' modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators' transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities: Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro-African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism, cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro-African literatures, the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists, writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and/or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro-African life worlds Get It On Jon Spurling, 2022-03-03 SHORTLISTED FOR BEST SPORTS WRITING AT THE SPORTS BOOK AWARDS 2023 Sheer joy Patrick Barclay Exhilarating When Saturday Comes Perfect Josh Widdicombe FourFourTwo Four years after the crowning glory of 1966 and a decade after the abolition of the maximum wage a brash new era dawned in English football As the 1970s took hold a new generation of larger-than-life players and managers emerged appearing on television sets in vivid technicolour for the first time Set against a backdrop of strikes, political unrest, freezing winters and glam rock Get It On tells the inside story of how commercialism, innovation, racism and hooliganism rocked the national game in the 1970s Packed with interviews with the legends of the day this footballing fiesta charts the emergence of Brian Clough, Bob Paisley and Kevin Keegan and the fall of George Best, Alf Ramsey and Don Revie presenting a vibrant portrait of the most groundbreaking decade in English football history Arts Methods for the Self-Representation of Undergraduate Students Miranda Matthews, 2023-04-07 This timely book explores the transitional experiences of undergraduates in minority groups studying at university and how arts methods and practices can play an important role in facilitating these transitions Based on research from UK universities this volume is the first to draw together the experiences of educators in the humanities and social sciences who integrate sensory methodologies in taught curriculum in relation to arts educators who add extra-curricular arts practice It offers an original contextualised analysis of how to enable university structures to adapt to complexity, difference and diversity taking the view that arts practice forms meeting points for confident interconnection and spaces of self-representation It outlines the novel concept of sensory transition in how arts practices can be used to address issues of inclusion, diversity and self-representation for minority groups Each chapter offers an in-depth analysis of significant issues such as dimensions of race, gender and class and the specificities of social and cultural group experiences as they occur in arts practice The book reflects on the decolonisation of university structures and curriculum and demonstrates how universities can support students and build spaces for self representation in academic courses Accessible and investigative this book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education inclusion and arts methods It will also be of great interest to higher education staff interested in decolonisation diversity and university futures

A Magical Mystery Time Brooke Halpin, 2015-03-12 From February 1964 to 1970 it was a magical mysterious time when The Beatles were a powerful force that shaped an entire generation of teens throughout the world Trevor Hampton the character in Brooke Halpin's new novel was one of those teens Trevor was so infatuated with and enamored by The Beatles that he thought he was a Beatle A Magical Mystery Time based on a true story is about Trevor's musical dreams and aspirations of becoming a successful rock and roller who devoutly followed everything The Beatles did But there were pot holes and dead ends on this obstacle laden long and winding road that led Trevor to disillusionment and shattered dreams Before he could move forward away from his false identity and life beyond The Beatles he had to get back to his past and resolve outstanding issues
