Access To Asylum Access To Asylum:

Access to Courts for Asylum Seekers and Refugees Emma Dunlop, 2024-02-08 In the first dedicated monograph on article 16 of the 1951 Refugee Convention Emma Dunlop positions the article within the broader context of public international law presenting a comprehensive account of asylum seekers and refugees right of access to courts Accessing Asylum in Europe Violeta Moreno Lax, 2017 The timely subject matter of this work focuses on the interface between extraterritorial border surveillance and migration control by EU member states and the rights that asylum seekers acquire from EU law In particular Moreno Lax concentrates on the relationship between the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and border control measures The Readmission of Asylum Seekers under International Law Mariagiulia Giuffré, 2020-02-20 This monograph could not be more timely as discourses relating to refugees access to territory rescue at sea push back and push back by proxy dominate political debate Looking at the questions which lie at the junction of migration control and refugee law standards it explores the extent to which readmission can hamper refugees access to protection Though it draws mainly on European law notably the European Convention on Human Rights it also examines other international frameworks including those employed by the United Nations and instruments such as the Refugee Convention Therefore this book is of importance to readers of international law refugee law human rights and migration studies at the global level It offers an analysis of both the legal and policy questions at play and engages fully with widely disputed cases concerning readmission agreements deportation with assurances and interception at sea By so doing this book seeks to clarify a complex field which has at times suffered from partiality in both its terminology and substance The Legal Protection of Refugees with Disabilities Mary Crock, Laura Smith-Khan, Ron McCallum, Ben Saul, 2017-08-25 This ground breaking book focuses on the forgotten refugees detailing people with disabilities who have crossed borders in search of protection from disaster or human conflict The authors explore the intersection between one of the oldest international human rights treaties the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with one of the newest the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD Drawing on fieldwork in six countries hosting refugees in a variety of contexts Malaysia Indonesia Pakistan Uganda Jordan and Turkey the book examines how the CRPD is or should be changing the way that governments and aid agencies engage with and accommodate persons with disabilities in situations of displacement The timeliness of the book is underscored by the adoption in mid 2016 of the UN Charter on Inclusion of Persons with Disabilities in Humanitarian Action adopted at the World Humanitarian Summit Children and Forced Migration Marisa O. Ensor, Elżbieta M. Goździak, 2017-02-23 This book responds to the reality that children and youth constitute a disproportionately large percentage of displaced populations worldwide It demonstrates how their hopes and aspirations reflect the transient nature of their age group and often differ from those of their elders It also examines how they face additional difficulties due to the inconsistent definition and uneven implementation of the traditional durable solutions to forced migration implemented by national governments and international assistance agencies The authors use empirical research findings and robust policy analyses of cases of child displacement across the globe to make their central argument that the particular challenges and opportunities that displaced children and youth face must be investigated and factored into relevant policy and practice promoting more sustainable and durable solutions in the process This interdisciplinary edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of forced migration studies development conflict and peace building and youth studies along with policy makers children s rights organizations and NGOs Inclusion through Access to Higher Education ,2017-01-01

A key feature of the 21st century is undoubtedly the increased flow of goods ideas and people across geographical cultural and political boundaries which has led to new dynamics and ever more complex forms of interconnectedness In this context the inclusion of people on the move through education is a central issue which this book addresses in an original way it combines three extensively yet often separately studied themes namely access to higher education immigration and languages Written by both established and new researchers the studies which make up this interdisciplinary volume shed light on the complex political social and cultural dynamics at play between the three dimensions in different settings Drawing on the specific stakes related to higher education the tensions between barriers and opportunities for future students such as immigration regulations language policies and internationalization strategies are analysed and confronted with less visible yet powerful logics such as personal and professional aspirations cultural identities or family priorities Decades after many national higher education systems strove to widen access internally to under represented groups this book offers new international comparative insights on the way higher education can meet external demands from people experiencing chosen or unchosen displacement while taking hold of the specific challenges raised by their linguistic and cultural diversity

provisions by highlighting new trends in State practice and analysing the jurisprudence of international human rights bodies as well as national and international Courts On the other hand it marks the boundaries of refugee law as legal frontiers whilst exploring new approaches and new frameworks that are necessary in order to address the emerging protection challenges
