Understanding Edward P. Jones James W. Coleman, 2016-07-15 A comprehensive survey of the works of an acclaimed African American writer In Understanding Edward P Jones James W Coleman analyzes Jones s award winning works as well as the significant influences that have shaped his craft Born and raised in Washington D C Jones has made that city and its African American community the subject of or background for most of his fiction Though Jones s first work was published in 1976 his career developed slowly While he worked for two decades as a proofreader and abstractor Jones published short fiction in such periodicals as Essence the New Yorker and Paris Review His first collection Lost in the City won the PEN Hemingway Award and subsequent books including The Known World and All Aunt Hagar s Children received similar accolades including the National Book Critics Circle Award and the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction Following an overview of Jones s life influences and career Coleman provides an introduction to the technique of Jones s fiction which he likens to a tapestry woven of intricate varied and sometimes disparate elements He then analyzes the formal structure themes and characters of The Known World and devotes a chapter each to the short story collections Lost in the City and All Aunt Hagar s Children His discussion of these volumes focuses on Jones s narrative technique the themes of family community and broader tradition and the connections through which the stories in each volume collectively create a thematic whole In his final chapter Coleman assesses Jones s encompassing outlook that sees African American life in distinct periods but also as a historical whole simultaneously in the future the past and the present Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P.

Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present O. Henry Prize Stories 2008 Laura Furman, 2008-11-19 An annual collection of the twenty best contemporary short stories selected by series editor Laura Furman from hundreds of literary magazines The O Henry Prize Stories 2008 is studded with extraordinary settings and characters a teenager in survivalist Alaska the seed keeper of a doomed Chinese village a young woman trying to save her life in a Ukrainian internet caf Also included are the winning writers comments on what inspired them a short essay from each of the three eminent jurors and an extensive resource list of literary magazines From the Trade Paperback edition

The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations

Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

An Organon of Life Knowledge Michael Basseler, 2019-01-23 Can fiction teach us how to live This study offers a fresh take on the North American short story exploring how the genre has engaged in the construction and circulation of life knowledge Echoing the resurgence of short story scholarship in recent years it thus contributes a genre focused perspective to the growing field of literature and knowledge studies Drawing on stories from the late 19th century to the present by authors such as Henry James F Scott Fitzgerald Eudora Welty Junot Diaz and Alice Munro Michael Basseler examines how knowledge about life and how to live it is generically constituted and vice versa how literary genres such as the short story are embedded in broader cultural frameworks of knowledge production
