Back Home Journeys Through Mobile:

Back Home Roy Hoffman, 2007-02-15 Roy Hoffman tells stories through essays feature articles and memoir of one of the South's oldest and most colorful port cities Southern Bound John S. Sledge, 2013-03-15 Southern Bound represents a running conversation on books writers and literary travel written for the Mobile Press Register Books page from 1995 to 2011 by John S. Sledge The collection includes more than one hundred of the best pieces culled from Sledge's total output of approximately seven hundred columns Numerous classic authors are celebrated in these pages including Homer Plato Gibbon Melville Proust Conrad Cather and Steinbeck as well as modern writers such as Walter Edgar Tom Franklin and Eugene Walter While some of the essays are relatively straightforward book reviews others present meditative and deeply personal perspectives on the author's literary experiences such as serving on the jury in the play version To Kill a Mockingbird spending the night alone in a Jesuit college library's venerable stacks rambling through funky New Orleans bookshops talking to Square Books owner Richard Howorth while overlooking the Oxford Mississippi courthouse rereading Treasure Island on the shores of Mobile Bay and remembering a beloved father's favorite books Engaging and spirited Southern Bound represents the critical art at its most accessible and will prove entertaining fare for anyone who loves the written word Satchel Larry Tye, 2010-05-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The superbly researched spellbindingly told story of athlete showman philosopher and boundary breaker Leroy Satchel Paige Among the rare biographies of an athlete that transcend sports gives us the man as well as the myth The Boston Globe Few reliable records or news reports survive about players in the Negro Leagues Through dogged detective work award winning author and journalist Larry Tye has tracked down the truth about this majestic and enigmatic pitcher interviewing more than two hundred Negro Leaguers and Major Leaguers talking to family and friends who had never told their stories before and retracing Paige's steps across the continent Here is the stirring account of the child born to an Alabama washerwoman with twelve young mouths to feed the boy who earned the nickname Satchel from his enterprising work as a railroad porter the young man who took up baseball on the streets and in reform school inventing his trademark hesitation pitch while throwing bricks at rival gang members Tye shows Paige barnstorming across America and growing into the superstar hurler of the Negro Leagues a marvel who set records so eye popping they seemed like misprints spent as much money as he made and left tickets for Mrs. Paige that were picked up by a different woman at each game In unprecedented detail Tye reveals how Paige hurt and angry when Jackie Robinson beat him to the Majors emerged at the age of forty-two to help propel the Cleveland Indians to the World Series He threw his last pitch from a big league mound at an improbable fifty-nine Age is a case of mind over matter he said If you don't mind it don't matter More than a fascinating account of a baseball odyssey Satchel rewrites our history of the integration of the sport with Satchel Paige in a starring role This is a powerful portrait of an American hero who employed a shuffling stereotype to disarm critics and racists floated comical legends about himself including about his own age to deflect inquiry and remain elusive and in the process methodically built his own myth Don't look back he famously said Something might be gaining on you Separating the truth from the legend Satchel is a remarkable accomplishment as large as this larger than life man

Inside Alabama Harvey H. Jackson, 2003 An insider's perspective in a conversational yet unapologetic style on the events and conditions that shaped modern day Alabama

Almost Family Roy Hoffman, 2018-09-25 The complex friendship between a black housekeeper and her Jewish employer is at the heart of Hoffman's prize winning novel about life in the civil rights era South Nebraska Waters is black Vivian Gold is Jewish In an Alabama kitchen where for nearly thirty years they share cups of coffee fret over their children and watch the civil rights movement unfold out their window and into their homes they are like family almost As Nebraska makes her way day in and out to Vivian's house to cook and help tend the Gold children the almost threatens to widen into a great divide The two women's husbands affect their relationship as do their children Viv Waters and Benjamin Gold born the same year and coming of age in a changing South The bond between the women both strengthens and frays Winner of the Lillian Smith Book Award and Alabama Library Association Award for fiction Roy Hoffman's Almost Family explores the relationship that begins when one person goes to work for another and their friendship across lines of race income and religion develops degrees of understanding yet growing misunderstanding This edition commemorates the 35th anniversary of the book's publication and features a foreword by the author and includes a discussion guide for readers and book clubs

Cradle of Freedom Frye Gaillard, 2006-03-05 Cradle of Freedom puts a human face on the story of the black American struggle for equality in Alabama during the 1960s While exceptional leaders such as Martin Luther King Jr Rosa Parks Fred Shuttlesworth Ralph Abernathy John Lewis and others rose up from the ranks and carved their places in history the burden of the movement was not carried by them alone It was fueled by the commitment and hard work of thousands of everyday people who decided that the time had come to take a stand Cradle of Freedom is tied to the chronology of pivotal events occurring in Alabama the Montgomery bus boycott the Freedom Rides the Letter from the Birmingham Jail the bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church Bloody Sunday and the Black Power movement in the Black Belt Gaillard artfully interweaves fresh stories of ordinary people with the familiar ones of the civil rights icons We learn about the ministers and lawyers both black and white who aided the movement in distinct ways at key points We meet Vernon Johns King's predecessor at the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery who first suggested boycotting the buses and who wrote later It is a heart strangely un-Christian that cannot thrill with joy when the least of men begin to pull in the direction of the stars We hear from John Hulett who tells how terror of lynching forced him down into ditches whenever headlights appeared on a night road We see the Edmund Pettus Bridge beatings from the perspective of marcher JoAnne Bland who was only a child at the time We learn of E D Nixon a Pullman porter who helped organize the bus boycott and who later choked with emotion when for the first time in his life a white man extended his hand in greeting to him on a public street How these ordinary people rose to the challenges of an unfair system with a will and determination that changed their times forever is a fascinating and extraordinary story that Gaillard tells with his hallmark talent Cradle of Freedom unfolds with the dramatic flow of a novel yet it is based on meticulous research With authority and grace Gaillard explains how the southern state deemed the Cradle of the Confederacy became with great struggle some loss and much hope the Cradle of Freedom Historic Mobile Michael Thomason,2010 Malicious Intent David Barton Smith,2023-10-15 Do we want to perpetuate a Jim Crow health system A brilliant idealistic physician named Jean Cowsert asked that question in Alabama in 1966 Her answer was no and soon after she died under suspicious circumstances Unearthing the truth of Cowsert s life and death is a central concern of David Barton Smith s Malicious Intent Unearthing the grim history of our health care system is another Race related disparities in American death rates exacerbated once again by the COVID 19 pandemic have persisted since the birth of the modern US medical system a century ago A unique but perpetually unequal history has prevented the United States from providing the kind of health care assurances that are taken for granted in other industrialized nations The underlying story is one of political medical and bureaucratic machinations all motivated by a deliberate Jim Crow systemic design In Malicious Intent David Barton Smith traces the Jean Cowsert story and the cold case of her death as a through line to explain the construction and fulfillment of an unequal health care system that would rather sacrifice many than provide for Black Americans Cowsert s suspicious death came at a key moment in the struggle for universal health care in the wealthiest country on earth Malicious Intent is a history of those failed efforts and a story of selective amnesia about one doctor s death and the movement she fought for Women in Microbiology Rachel J. Whitaker,Hazel B. Barton,2020-07-02 Many girls want to become scientists when they grow up just like many boys do But for these girls the struggle to do what they love and to be treated with respect has been much harder because of the discrimination and bias in our society In Women in Microbiology we meet women who despite these obstacles and against tough odds have become scientific leaders and revered mentors The women profiled in this collection range from historic figures like Alice Catherine Evans and Ruth Ella Moore to modern heroes like Michele Swanson and Katrina Forest What binds all of these remarkable women are a passion for their work a zest for life a warm devotion to mentoring others especially younger women and a sense of justice and fairness that they are willing to fight tirelessly to obtain Each story is unique but each woman featured in Women in Microbiology has done so much to expand our knowledge of the natural world while also making it easier for the next generation of scientists to work collaboratively and in an atmosphere where people are judged by their intellect imagination skill and commitment to service regardless of gender or race Women in Microbiology is a wonderful collection of stories that will inspire everyone but especially young women and men who are wondering how to find their way in the working world Some of the names are familiar and some are lesser known but all of the stories arouse a sense of excitement driven by tales of new important scientific insights stories of overcoming adversity and breaking boundaries and the inclusion of personal tips and advice from successful careers These stories are proof that a person can live a balanced and passionate life in science that is rich and rewarding Hank Aaron and the Home Run That Changed America Tom Stanton, 2009-10-13 This dramatic account of the record breaking homer and what Hank Aaron endured to achieve it is a story that transcends baseball Boston Herald Baseball has witnessed more than 125 000 home runs Countless home runs have altered the outcome of baseball games Some have decided pennants and become legend But no dinger has had greater impact than Hank Aaron s 715th home run His historic blast on April 8 1974 lifted him above Babe Ruth on the all time list an achievement that shook not only baseball but our nation itself Aaron s magnificent feat provoked bigotry and shattered prejudice inspired a generation emboldened a flagging civil rights movement and called forth the demons that haunted Aaron s every step turning what should have been a joyous pursuit into a hellish nightmare In this powerful recollection Casey Award winner Tom Stanton penetrates the myth of Aaron s chase and uncovers the compelling story behind this most consequential athletic achievement Five decades after Hank Aaron reached the pinnacle of the national pastime Stanton unfolds a tale rich with drama poignancy and suspense that brings to life the elusive spirit of an American hero Fascinating Publishers Weekly Baseball books rarely reach the heights of Stanton s excellent Chicago Tribune Captures the drama of Aaron s drive to the record The New York Times Book Review
