Shaw, 2013-06-29 One day early in the eighteen hundred and sixties I being then a small boy was with my nurse buying something in the shop of a petty newsagent bookseller and stationer in Camden Street Dublin when there entered an elderly man weighty and solemn who advanced to the counter and said pompously Have you the works of the celebrated Buffon My own works were at that time unwritten or it is possible that the shop assistant might have misunderstood me so far as to produce a copy of Man and Superman As it was she knew quite well what he wanted for this was before the Education Act of 1870 had produced shop assistants who know how to read and know nothing else The celebrated Buffon was not a humorist but the famous naturalist Buffon Every literate child at that time knew Buffon's Natural History as well as Esop's Fables And no living child had heard the name that has since obliterated Buffon's in the popular consciousness the name of Darwin

Back to Methuselah George Bernard Shaw, 2018-07-14 Back to Methuselah by George Bernard Shaw George Bernard Shaw 1856 1950 is revered as one of the great British dramatists credited not only with memorable works but the revival of the then suffering English theatre Shaw was born in Dublin Ireland left mostly to his own devices after his mother ran off to London to pursue a musical career He educated himself for the most part and eventually worked for a real estate agent This experience founded in him a concern for social injustices seeing poverty and general unfairness afoot and would go on to address this in many of his works In 1876 Shaw joined his mother in London where he would finally attain literary success Back the Methuselah is regarded as Science Fiction and a sort of commentary on human destiny It consists of a preface An Infidel Half Century and a series of five plays In the Beginning B C 4004 In the Garden of Eden The Gospel of the Brothers Barnabas Present Day The Thing Happens A D 2170 Tragedy of an Elderly Gentleman A D 3000 and As Far as Thought Can Reach A D 31 920 We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Back to Methuselah George Bernard Shaw, 2021-05-11 Ten years elapsed The celebrated Buffoon was forgotten I had doubled my years and my length and I had discarded the religion of my forefathers One day the richest and consequently most dogmatic of my uncles came into a restaurant where I was dining and found himself much against his will in conversation with the most questionable of his nephews By way of making myself agreeable I spoke of modern thought and Darwin He said Oh thats the fellow who wants to make out that we all have tails like monkeys I tried to explain that what Darwin had insisted on in this connection was that some monkeys have no tails But my uncle was as impervious to what Darwin really said as any Neo Darwinian nowadays He died impenitent and did not mention me in his will
