Graduate Students' Research about Community Colleges Deborah L. Floyd, Cristobal Salinas Jr., Ethan C. Swingle, María-Jose Zeledón-Pérez, Sim Barhoum, Gianna Ramdin, 2021-05-13 This book brings together a collection of chapters with different research designs that explore the research practice and policies of community colleges The chapters in this book are the result of the graduate students and their faculty mentor s scholarly work and a rigorous special issue s peer review process Furthermore this book offers recommendations on how to mentor graduate students in the absence of research and mentorship on how to publish for graduate students and practitioner scholars as well as recognizing that graduate programs and professional associations are important on the socialization of practitioner scholars Each book chapter addresses the implications for practice and future research policy for community colleges and recommendation for change indicated by the research results Five broad research themes higher education policy leadership practices and roles network community student success and technology emerged from the empirical articles and critical reviews A final chapter shares advice and lessons learned from the 30 authors and mentors With the exception of Chapter 14 the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Community College Journal of Research and Practice

Community College and Beyond José R. Del Real Viramontes, Marissa C. Vasquez, 2023-08-01 As the transfer disparity persists among Latina o x community college students and continues to widen for those seeking to complete their baccalaureate degree we asked ourselves three questions 1 How do Latina o x community college students navigate the transfer preparation and decision making process 2 Once at the university how do Latina o x transfer students negotiate their identities and lived experiences as they persist towards graduation and beyond And 3 What policies practices and programs at both two and four year institutions facilitate access persistence and completion for Latina o x community college transfer students These reflections prompted us to seek answers This is the first edited book to provide much needed theoretical and empirical insights on Latina o x students who enter postsecondary education through the community college Our book offers a comprehensive outlook on the pre and post transfer experiences of Latina o x students written by scholars and scholarpractitioners working in the field of higher education In addition we include specific sections that speak directly to policies practices and theory that address transfer pathways for Latina o x community college and transfer students

Partners in Literacy Allen Brizee, Jaclyn M. Wells, 2016-07-18 Partners in Literacy describes the process research relationships and theories that guided a three year partnership between the Purdue University Writing Lab and two community organizations in Lafayette Indiana the Lafayette Adult Resource Academy and WorkOne Express This partnership resulted in a new section of the globally known Purdue Online Writing Lab OWL and the Community Writing and Education Station CWEST which featured adult literacy resources in the areas of GED preparation English as a Second Language and workplace and job search literacy Using an empirical and iterative design process the authors worked closely with their community partners to develop test revise and launch these resources In Partners in Literacy the authors argue that writing centers can be effective spaces from which to work with the community and that writing centers missions of sustainability outreach and research driven practice can offer valuable philosophies for civic engagement To support this argument the book discusses the research methods and findings the process behind developing and sustaining the three year engagement project and the personal relationships that ultimately held the project together

Working Toward Racial Equity in First-Year Composition
Renee DeLong, Taiyon Coleman, Kathleen DeVore, Shannon Gibney, Michael Kuhne, Valerie Déus, 2018-12-07 This book presents the authors attempts to interrogate the ways that white institutional pedagogical and curricular heteronormativity affects equity in writing instruction at Two Year Colleges Written from a wide range of subject and identity positions this volume explores issues that arise among students inside historically white dominant classrooms among faculty as curriculum and hiring decisions are made and among colleagues when they attempt to engage the wider institution in equity work Aiming to significantly change how urban Community College writing instruction is delivered in this country the book operates on the principle that equity is essential to successful writing pedagogy curricular development and student success
