As a perpetual playboy and flirt, it is no secret that he dates a lot. Until a secret one-night stand with his new brother-in-law's younger sister. She is the first woman who makes him want more from a relationship. But it's not that simple with her two formidable brothers watching out for her. They've both warned Cade on multiple occasions to stay away. So he has. Cade takes the opportunity as the new executive over the Miami location of his sister's massive business to ignore his never-ending attraction to Megan Hayes. Instead, he's out to prove to his family that he can handle the high stakes job despite the danger. But the second Megan shows up in Miami, needing a place to live and hiding from her brothers, all of those good intentions to keep his distance disappear. This is it. His second chance. He won't miss this opportunity to win her, no matter what her brothers say. And when her past follows her across the country, putting both their futures at stake, he's ready. This is the moment Cade can finally prove to the family that he can handle this job and be the man to protect Megan. Unbreakable Future is the third and final book in the Family Ties Series. It's a romantic suspense book with a good amount of humor and, of course, a happily ever after.
