Performing Identity and Gender in Literature, Theatre and the Visual Arts Panayiota Chrysochou, 2017-03-07 This volume presents a compelling range of chapters focusing on the myriad ways in which performance and gender are inextricably bound to identity. It shows how gender performance and identity play themselves out in various ways contexts and genres in order to illumine the very instability and fluidity of identity as a static category. As such it is a must read for anyone interested in gender studies identity politics and literature in general

Theatre, Performance, and Memory Politics in Argentina B. Werth, 2010-10-25 Since Argentina's transition to democracy the expression of human fragility on the stage has taken diverse forms. This book examines the intervention of theatre and performance in the memory politics surrounding Argentina's return to democracy and makes a case for performance's transformative power

Performing Architectures Andrew Filmer, Juliet Rufford, 2018-05-03 Performing Architectures offers a coherent introduction to the fields of performance and contemporary architecture exploring the significance of architecture for performance theory and theatre and performance practice. It maps the diverse relations that exist between these disciplines and demonstrates how their aims concerns and practices overlap through shared interests in space action and event. Through a wide range of international examples and contributions from scholars and practitioners it offers readers an analytical survey of current practices and equips them with the tools for analyzing site specific and immersive theatre and performance. The essays in this volume contributed by leading theorists and practitioners from both disciplines focus on three key sites of encounter. Projects examines recent trends in architecture for performance. Practices looks at cross currents in artistic practice including spatial dramaturgies performance architectonics and performative architectures and Pedagogies considers the uses of performance in architectural education and architecture in teaching performance. The volume provides an essential introduction to the ways in which performance and architecture as socio spatial processes and as things made or constructed operate as generating shaping and steering forces in understanding and performing the other
