introduction to the philosophy of Martin Heidegger by focusing on not just the relationship between Heidegger and theology or even the nature of the discourse that must occur between theological concerns and Heidegger's philosophical errands but by precisely exploring how theology can use Heidegger's philosophy as a means of outlining the scope and task of postmodern theology To do this especially with the postmodern theologian in mind this book considers the general relationship between Heidegger and theology how Heidegger can be read theologically while justifying why Heidegger must be read this way and defining the role that Heidegger must take in postmodern theology This includes a careful consideration of Heidegger's early theological roots from Freiburg to Marburg by examining the content of Heidegger's lesser known theologically minded seminars lectures and talks

Qur'an of the Oppressed Shadaab Rahemtulla, 2017-02-09 This study analyses the commentaries of four Muslim intellectuals who have turned to scripture as a liberating text to confront an array of problems from patriarchy racism and empire to poverty and interreligious communal violence Shadaab Rahemtulla considers the exegeses of the South African Farid Esack b 1956 the Indian Asghar Ali Engineer 1939 2013 the African American Amina Wadud b 1952 and the Pakistani American Asma Barlas b 1950 Rahemtulla examines how these intellectuals have been able to expound this seventh century Arabian text in a socially liberating way addressing their own lived realities of oppression and thus contexts that are worlds removed from that of the text's immediate audience Through a close reading of their works he underlines the importance of both the ethico social content of the Qur'an and their usage of new and innovative reading practices This work provides a rich analysis of the thought ways of specific Muslim intellectuals thereby substantiating a broadly framed school of thought Rahemtulla draws out their specific and general importance without displaying an uncritical sympathy He sheds light on the impact of modern exegetical commentary which is more self consciously concerned with historical context and present realities In a mutually reinforcing way this work thus illuminates both the role of agency and hermeneutical approaches in modern Islamic thought
