Religious Ways of Experiencing Life Carl Olson, 2016-02-05 Religious Ways of Experiencing Life A Global and Narrative Approach surveys world religions using the narratives and discourses of each tradition to describe it in its own terms Carl Olson examines each tradition's practices, teachings, material culture, roles of women, and path to salvation as well as the experiences of its followers The exploration of lived experience draws out and emphasizes the plural nature of religious traditions The volume includes chapters on all current major world religions as well as material on ancient religions of the Mediterranean, indigenous North American, and African spiritual traditions and New Age and new religious movements Featuring timelines and suggestions for further reading, this text will be of interest to undergraduate students seeking a broad introduction to World Religion or Lived Religion

The Ethics of Sankara and Santideva Warren Lee Todd, 2016-03-23 Exploring the philosophical concerns of the nature of self, this book draws from two of the most influential Indian masters, a karmika and a ntideva Todd demonstrates that an ethics of altruism is still possible within a metaphysics which assumes there to be no independent self A new ethical model based on the notions of flickering consciousness and constructive altruism is proposed By comparing the metaphysics and ethics of a karmika and a ntideva Todd shows that the methodologies and aims of these Buddhist and Hindu masters trace remarkably similar cross-cutting paths Treating Buddhism and Hinduism with equal respect, this book compares and reinterprets the Indian material so as to engage with contemporary Western debates on self and to show that Indian philosophy is indeed a philosophy of dialogue
