

10 Questions for Bishop L. Todd Budge's talk "Seek Him with All Your Heart"

• How do you make quality time with the Lord? What tips can you share? How do you nourish your spirit, not just take a nibble?

• How did Elder Hirst's explanation of the Japanese translation of "be still" expand your understanding and application?

• One of the ironies of life is that we often feel too busy to take time to be still and commune with God. Yet that very act will help ease our busyness, stress, and often guide us toward simpler ways. How do you balance your busy schedule with the need for stillness? How do you convince yourself it's worth it? For example, when you are sick, rest is best but we often feel we can't rest.

• Have you tried meditation? What works for you? What do you struggle with? What benefits have you noticed?

• What are some other ways we can give our attention to the Lord? What are some practices we can implement to truly seek the Lord with our whole hearts?

• Bishop Budge reminds us that more time isn't necessarily needed in order to improve our time with the Lord. How can we adjust our daily spiritual routines to make them more beneficial?

• How has your approach to prayer changed as you have strived to include quiet reflection and listening instead of simply speaking? What blessings have you seen come from it?
