Guofang Li, University of British Columbia, Canada; Miles Huberman and Salda's Qualitative Data Analysis: A Methods Sourcebook is the authoritative text for analyzing and displaying qualitative research data. The Fourth Edition maintains the analytic rigor of previous editions while showcasing a variety of new visual display models for qualitative inquiry. Graphics are added to the now classic matrix and network illustrations of the original co-authors. Five chapters have been substantially revised and the appendix's annotated bibliography includes new titles in research methods. Graduate students and established scholars from all disciplines will find this resource an innovative compendium of ideas for the representation and presentation of qualitative data. As the authors demonstrate when researchers think display their analyses of social life capture the complex and vivid processes of the people and institutions studied.

The Thesis Writing Journeys of Bachelor's and Master's Students Bojana Petrić, Montserrat

Castelló, 2024-12-20. Completing a thesis is a crucial final stage in many bachelor's and master's programmes across Europe and beyond. However, the process of thesis writing, how it is experienced by the writers and how those experiences impact on writing, remain underexplored. This book examines the student experience of thesis writing through an interdisciplinary perspective, drawing on theories of learning, emotions, and genre, and narrative discursive analysis. As a result of this approach, the thesis is reconceptualised as a multilayered experience from the point of view of student writers. The chapters, which arose out of a collaborative research project across 10 European countries, employ an innovative combination of methods, including the use of journey plots, to provide a complex picture of the thesis writing process, which will be of interest to readers involved in academic writing at all levels.

Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara

Adbolmaleki, Roxana Akhbari, Siavash Saffari, 2017-05-11. By focusing on colonial histories and legacies, this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts. From a range of disciplinary perspectives, the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia, the Middle East, and Northern Africa. They also analyze the various modes through which, in Europe itself and in North America by extension, people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity. The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social, political, cultural, and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts.

Completing Your Qualitative Dissertation Linda Dale Bloomberg, 2022-11-17. Addressing the key challenges facing doctoral students, this text fills a gap in qualitative literature by offering comprehensive guidance and practical tools for navigating each step in the qualitative dissertation journey, including the planning, research, and writing phases. Author Linda Dale Bloomberg blends the conceptual, theoretical, and practical so that the book becomes a dissertation in action, a logical and cohesive explanation and illustration of content and process. The Fifth Edition includes a greater focus on how qualitative traditions or genres can encompass a critical social justice agenda and this broader coverage allows the book to have wider application for dissertation work within the constantly evolving field of qualitative inquiry This edition also addresses some significant changes in the field that have come about since the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic impacting how to conduct dissertation research both ethically and credibly by adopting new and innovative methods and approaches A greater focus on ethics rigor researcher positionality and reflexivity is highlighted and interwoven throughout
