Assembling Early Christianity Cavan W. Concannon, 2017-09-07 In this book Cavan W. Concannon explores the growth and development of Christianity in the second century He focuses on Dionysios of Corinth an early Christian bishop who worked to build a network of churches along trade routes in the eastern Mediterranean Using archaeological evidence and analysing Dionysios' fragmentary letter collection Concannon shows how various networks and collectives assembled together and how various Christianities emerged and coexisted as a result of tenuous and shifting networks Dionysios' story also overlaps with key early Christian debates notably issues of celibacy marriage re-admission of sinners Roman persecution and the economic and political interdependence of churches which are also explored in this study Concannon's volume thus offers new insights into a fluid emergent Christianity at a pivotal moment of its evolution

Maidens, Magic and Martyrs in Early Christianity Jan N. Bremmer, 2017-07-13 In this work Jan N Bremmer aims to bring together the worlds of early Christianity and those of ancient history and classical literature worlds that still all too rarely interlock Contextualising the life and literature of the early Christians in their Greco Roman environment he focusses on four areas A first section looks at more general aspects of early Christianity the name of the Christians their religious and social capital prophecy and the place of widows and upper class women in the Christian movement Second the chronology and place of composition of the early apocryphal Acts of the Apostles and Pseudo Clementines are newly determined by paying close attention to their doctrinal contents but also innovatively to their onomastics and social vocabulary The author also analyses the frequent use of magic in the Acts and explains the prominence of women by comparing the Acts to the Greek novel Third an investigation into the theme of the tours of hell suggests a new chronological order shows that the Christian tours were indebted to both Greek and Jewish models and illustrates that in the course of time the genre dropped a large part of its Jewish heritage The fourth and final section concentrates on the most famous and intriguing report of an ancient martyrdom the Passion of Perpetua It pays special attention to the motivation and visions of Perpetua which are analyzed not by taking recourse to modern theories such as psychoanalysis but by looking to the world in which Perpetua lived both Christian and pagan It is only by seeing the early Christians in their ancient world that we might begin to understand them and their emerging communities Publisher's description
