A Voyage To Arcturus An Interstellar Voyage:

A Voyage to Arcturus David Lindsay, 2015-11-05 An Interstellar Voyage Classic Science Fiction A Voyage to Arcturus By David Lindsay A Voyage to Arcturus is a novel by Scottish writer David Lindsay first published in 1920 It combines fantasy philosophy and science fiction in an exploration of the nature of good and evil and their relationship with existence Critic and philosopher Colin Wilson described it as the greatest novel of the twentieth century and it was a central influence on C S Lewis Space Trilogy J R R Tolkien said he read the book with avidity Clive Barker has stated A Voyage to Arcturus is a masterpiece and called it an extraordinary work quite magnificent An interstellar voyage is the framework for a narrative of a journey through fantastic landscapes The story is set at Tormance an imaginary planet orbiting Arcturus which in the novel but not in reality is a double star system consisting of stars Branchspell and Alppain The lands through which the characters travel represent philosophical systems or states of mind through which the main character Maskull passes on his search for the meaning of life Maskull a man longing for adventures accepts an invitation from Krag an acquaintance of his friend Nightspore to travel to Tormance after a seance The three set off in a crystal ship from an abandoned observatory in Scotland but Maskull awakens to find himself alone on Tormance In every land he passes through he usually meets only one or two persons these meetings often though not always end in the death of those he meets either at his own hand or by that of another He learns of his own impending death meets Krag again and dies shortly after learning that he is in fact Nightspore himself The book concludes with a final revelation from Krag who claims to be known on Earth as Pain to Nightspore about the origin of the Universe The author turns out to support a variation of the doctrine of the Demiurge somewhat similar to that propounded by some Gnostics All of the characters and lands are types used to convey the author's critique of several philosophical systems On Tormance most such viewpoints or ways of life are accompanied by corresponding new bodily sense organs or modifications of the same thus each distinct Weltanschauung landscape has its corresponding sensorium

A Voyage to Arcturus David Lindsay, 1963-01-01 On a march evening at eight o'clock Backhouse the medium a fast rising star in the psychic world was ushered into the study at Prolands the Hampstead residence of Montague Faull The room was illuminated only by the light of a blazing fire The host eying him with indolent curiosity got up and the usual conventional greetings were exchanged Having indicated an easy chair before the fire to his guest the South American merchant sank back again into his own The electric light was switched on Faull's prominent clear cut features metallic looking skin and general air of bored impassiveness did not seem greatly to impress the medium who was accustomed to regard men from a special angle Backhouse on the contrary was a novelty to the merchant As he tranquilly studied him through half closed lids and the smoke of a cigar he wondered how this little thickset person with the pointed beard contrived to remain so fresh and sane in appearance in view of the morbid nature of his occupation Do you smoke drawled Faull by way of starting the Conversation No Then will you take a drink Not at present I thank you A pause

Everything is satisfactory The materialisation will take place I see no reason to doubt it That s good for I would not like my guests to be disappointed I have your check written out in my pocket Afterward will do quite well Nine o clock was the time specified I believe I fancy so The conversation continued to flag Faull sprawled in his chair and remained apathetic Would you care to hear what arrangements I have made I am unaware that any are necessary beyond chairs for your guests I mean the decoration of the seance room the music and so forth Backhouse stared at his host But this is not a theatrical performance That s correct Perhaps I ought to explain There will be ladies present and ladies you know are aesthetically inclined In that case I have no objection I only hope they will enjoy the performance to the end He spoke rather dryly Well that s all right then said Faull Flicking his cigar into the fire he got up and helped himself to whisky Will you come and see the room Thank you no I prefer to have nothing to do with it till the time arrives Then let s go to see my sister Mrs Jameson who is in the drawing room She sometimes does me the kindness to act as my hostess as I am unmarried I will be delighted said Backhouse coldly They found the lady alone sitting by the open pianoforte in a pensive attitude She had been playing Scriabin and was overcome The medium took in her small tight patrician features and porcelain like hands and wondered how Faull came by such a sister She received him bravely with just a shade of quiet emotion He was used to such receptions at the hands of the sex and knew well how to respond to them What amazes me she half whispered after ten minutes of graceful hollow conversation is if you must know it not so much the manifestation itself though that will surely be wonderful as your assurance that it will take place Tell me the grounds of your confidence I dream with open eyes he answered looking around at the door and others see my dreams That is all But that s beautiful responded Mrs Jameson She smiled rather absently for the first guest had just entered It was Kent Smith the ex magistrate celebrated for his shrewd judicial humour which however he had the good sense not to attempt to carry into private life Although well on the wrong side of seventy his eyes were still disconcertingly bright With the selective skill of an old man he immediately settled himself in the most comfortable of many comfortable chairs
