Wikipedia contributors, The Palgrave Handbook of Music and Sound in Japanese Animation Marco

Pellitteri, 2024-09-13. This handbook fills a substantial gap in the international academic literature on animation at large on music studies and on the aural dimensions of Japanese animation more specifically. It offers a unique contribution at the intersection between music and popular culture studies on the one hand and research on Japanese animated productions often called anime as popular art forms and formats of entertainment on the other. The book is designed as a reference work consisting of an organic sequence of theory grounded essays on the development of music sounds and voices in Japanese animation for cinema and television since the 1930s. Each chapter deals with a phase of this history focusing on composers and performers, films, series and genres used in the soundtracks for animations made in Japan. The chapters also offer valuable interviews with prominent figures of music in Japanese animation as well as chapter boxes clarifying specific aspects.

Local Fusions Barbara Rose Lange, 2018-07-09. In Local Fusions author Barbara Rose Lange explores musical life in Hungary, Slovakia and Austria between the end of the Cold War and the world financial crisis of 2008. With case studies from Budapest, Bratislava and Vienna, the book looks at the ways that artists generated social commentary and tried new ways of working together as the political and economic atmosphere shifted during this time. Drawn from a variety of sources, the case studies illustrate how young musicians redefined a Central European history of elevating the arts by fusing poetry, local folk music and other vernacular music with jazz, Asian music, art music and electronic dance music. Their projects rejected exclusion based on ethnic background or gender prevalent in Central Europe's present far right political movements and instead embraced diverse modes of expression. Through this, the musicians asserted woman power, broadened masculinities and declared affinity with regional minorities such as the Romani people.
