APA's 54 divisions are interest groups organized by members. Some represent subdisciplines of psychology (e.g., experimental, social, or clinical), while others focus on topic areas such as aging, ethnic minorities, or trauma. APA members, and even nonmembers, may apply for membership in one or more divisions, which have their own admission criteria and dues. In addition, each division has its own officers, websites, publications, email list, awards, convention activities, and meetings.
