

The background of the cover is a photograph of a large iceberg floating in the ocean. The tip of the iceberg, which is visible above the water line, is jagged and covered in snow. The vast majority of the iceberg is submerged underwater, appearing as a large, dark blue mass. The sky is a clear, pale blue with some light, wispy clouds. The overall image serves as a metaphor for the concept of auditing, where the visible part represents the surface-level information and the submerged part represents the hidden or internal aspects of a company's operations.
