Applications of Nanobiomaterials, Volume 1 Karuppusamy Arunachalam, Krishnan Anand, Sathish Sundar Dhilip Kumar, Sonaimuthu Mohandoss, Ram Prasad, Zikhona Tywabi-Ngeva, 2015-10-13 Biomaterials play a vital role in medicine today including restoring function and facilitating diagnosis and disease prevention Biomaterial based products consist of either natural or synthetic materials Biomaterials derived from natural products can consist of materials such as proteins polysaccharides lipids glycoproteins lipoproteins cellular matrix and its components These products may be used as alternatives to animal derived and synthetic chemical products to develop new therapeutic and diagnostic approaches with greater eco friendliness and sustainability according to new research They are also biocompatible biodegradable renewable non toxic and capable of remodelling Recently scientists have been exploring the potential use of plant based cellular matrix based biomaterials for the treatment of various communicable and noncommunicable diseases a trend that has attracted the attention of global biomedical research Globally there has been an increase in the need for more effective treatment and diagnostics as a result of the overwhelming disease burden in society Current Applications of Nanobiomaterials Volume 1 and Volume 2 together outline the most widely used biomaterials derived from non animal natural resources such as plants fungi algae and microbes with a focus on novel therapeutic and diagnostic applications Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development

This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

Corporate Finance and Financial Development Shame Mugova, Joseph Olorunfemi Akande, Odunayo Magret Olarewaju, 2022-07-08 This book addresses key issues in corporate finance and explores them from financial development and financial stability perspectives in emerging markets Emerging economies are susceptible to rapidly changing financial sectors and products as well as financial upheavals In this light the growing interdependence of states and capital markets and the risk of crises have an impact on the financing of firms The chapters in this book highlight how companies and policies in emerging markets are affected and deal with the current post crisis world By combining academic and industry insights the critical issues in corporate finance financial development and the preparedness of emerging markets are explored
