Between Samaritans And States Between Samaritans And States:

Between Samaritans and States Jennifer C. Rubenstein, 2015 Examining the difficult ethical quandaries faced by humanitarian non governmental organizations INGOs this book explains why INGOs occupy a middle ground between the individual good Samaritan and full fledged conventional governments Humanitarians on the Frontier Alasdair Gordon-Gibson, 2021-11-17 The book examines the reasons behind accusations of dysfunctional humanitarian identities and the loss of space for impartial action Through a combination of practical examples in case studies from the field with a theoretical and philosophical approach to questions of voluntary service community and identity it reconsiders the exceptional discourse that constructs these identities and drives humanitarian response in environments of complex emergency By recognizing both the strength and the limits of its social and political agency the study presents opportunities for the construction of a less exceptional space or niche within the humanitarian sector where the politics is around one of an ordinary humanitarian society instead of an ordered humanitarian system Unconscionable Crimes Paul C. Morrow, 2020-09-22 The first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity How can we explain and prevent such large scale atrocities as the Holocaust In Unconscionable Crimes Paul Morrow presents the first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity After offering a clear overview of norms and norm transformation rooted in recent work in moral and political philosophy Morrow examines numerous twentieth century cases of mass atrocity drawing on documentary and testimonial sources to illustrate the influence of norms before during and after such crimes Christ and the Common Life Luke Bretherton, 2019-05-07 In Christ and the Common Life Luke Bretherton provides an introduction to historical and contemporary theological reflection on politics and opens up a compelling vision for a Christian commitment to democracy In dialogue with Scripture and various traditions Bretherton examines the dynamic relationship between who we are in relation to God and who we are as moral and political animals He addresses fundamental political questions about poverty and injustice forming a common life with strangers and handling power constructively And through his analysis of debates concerning among other things race class economics the environment and interfaith relations he develops an innovative political theology of democracy as a way through which Christians can speak and act faithfully within our current context Read as a whole or as stand alone chapters the book guides readers through the political landscape and identifies the primary vocabulary ideas and schools of thought that shape Christian reflection on politics in the West Ideal for the classroom Christ and the Common Life equips students to understand politics and its positive and negative role in fostering neighbor love The Samaritan Pentateuch Robert T. Anderson, Terry Giles, 2012-10-22 The Samaritan Pentateuch SP is the sacred scripture of the Samaritans a tenacious religious community made famous by Jesus Good Samaritan story that persists to this day Not so widely known is the impact of the SP outside the Samaritan community Recently there has been a resurgence of interest in this scripture as evidenced by several translations of the SP as well as reference in Qumran scroll studies to the SP or an SP like tradition in an effort to describe some of the textual evidence present in the scrolls This volume presents a general introduction to and overview of the SP suitable for a course text and as a reference tool for the professional scholar Jesus the Samaritan Stewart Penwell,2019-03-19 In Jesus the Samaritan Ethnic Labeling in the Gospel of John Stewart Penwell examines how ethnic labels function in the Gospel of John After a review of the discourse history between the Jews and the Samaritans the dual ethnic labeling in John 4 9 and 8 48 are examined and in each instance members from the Jews and the Samaritans label Jesus as a member of each other s group for deviating from what were deemed acceptable practices as a member of the Jews The intra textual links between John 4 and 8 reveal that the function of Jesus s dual ethnic labeling is to establish a new pattern of practices and categories for the children of God 1 12 11 52 who are a trans ethnic group united in fictive kinship and embedded within the Judean ethnic group s culture and traditions The Jerusalem Temple and Early Christian Identity Timothy Wardle,2010 Slightly revised and expanded version of the author s thesis Ph D Duke University Durham 2008 Women in John's Gospel Susan Miller,2023-01-26 Closely examines John s portrayal of women in relation to discipleship and the theme of new creation arguing that these depictions are influenced by his apocalyptic world view By employing historical and literary methods of biblical interpretation to analyse John s presentation of women and gender Miller explores the extent to which John gives any indications of the female role in both John s community and the beginnings of the Christian faith Beginning with the Virgin Mary s portrayal at the wedding at Cana where she prompts Jesus to carry out his first sign Miller then thoroughly assesses several crucial female characters in John to stress how Jesus female followers truly recognise him as the Messiah These include the Samaritan woman Martha and Mary of Bethany and Mary Magdalene and her encounter with Jesus in the garden Crucially Miller suggests that John s frequent use of woman links these female followers particular Jesus venerated mother with the figure of Eve in Genesis and she concludes that women are associated with the hour of Jesus when he casts out the ruler of the world and inaugurates the new creation Between Samaritans and States Jennifer Rubenstein,2015-01-29 This book provides the first book length English language account of the political ethics of large scale Western based humanitarian INGOs such as Oxfam CARE and Doctors Without Borders These INGOs are often either celebrated as heroes or do good machines or maligned as incompetents on the road to hell In contrast this book suggests the picture is more complicated Drawing on political theory philosophy and ethics along with original fieldwork this book shows that while humanitarian INGOs are often perceived as non governmental and apolitical they are in fact sometimes somewhat governmental highly political and often second best actors As a result they face four central ethical predicaments the problem of spattered hands the quandary of the second best the cost effectiveness conundrum and the moral motivation trade off This book considers what it would look like for INGOs to navigate these predicaments in ways that are as consistent as possible with democratic egalitarian humanitarian and justice based norms It argues that humanitarian

INGOs must regularly make deep moral compromises In choosing which compromises to make they should focus primarily on their overall consequences as opposed to their intentions or the intrinsic value of their activities But they should interpret consequences expansively and not limit themselves to those that are amenable to precise measurements of cost effectiveness The book concludes by explaining the implications of its map of humanitarian INGO political ethics for individual donors to INGOs and for how we all should conceive of INGOs role in addressing pressing global problems
