Journalism Under Fire Stephen Gillers, 2018-08-07 A healthy democracy requires vigorous uncompromising investigative journalism But today the free press faces a daunting set of challenges in the face of harsh criticism from powerful politicians and the threat of lawsuits from wealthy individuals media institutions are confronted by an uncertain financial future and stymied by a judicial philosophy that takes a narrow view of the protections that the Constitution affords reporters In Journalism Under Fire Stephen Gillers proposes a bold set of legal and policy changes that can overcome these obstacles to protect and support the work of journalists Gillers argues that law and public policy must strengthen the freedom of the press including protection for news gathering and confidential sources He analyzes the First Amendment s Press Clause drawing on older Supreme Court cases and recent dissenting opinions to argue for greater press freedom than the Supreme Court is today willing to recognize Beyond the First Amendment Journalism Under Fire advocates policies that facilitate and support the free press as a public good Gillers proposes legislation to create a publicly funded National Endowment for Investigative Reporting modeled on the national endowments for the arts and for the humanities improvements to the Freedom of Information Act and a national anti SLAPP law a statute to protect media organizations from frivolous lawsuits to help journalists and the press defend themselves in court Gillers weaves together questions of journalistic practice law and policy into a program that can ensure a future for investigative reporting and its role in our democracy governments militants criminals and terrorists who all seek to use technology political pressure and violence to set the global information agenda Reporting from Pakistan Russia Turkey Egypt and Mexico among other hotspots Simon finds journalists under threat from all sides The result is a growing crisis in information a shortage of the news we need to make sense of our globalized world and fight human rights abuses manage conflict and promote accountability Drawing on his experience defending journalists on the front lines he calls on global citizens U S policy makers international law advocates and human rights groups to create a global freedom of expression agenda tied to trade climate and other major negotiations He proposes ten key priorities including combating the murder of journalists ending censorship and developing a global free expression charter to challenge the criminal and corrupt forces that seek to manipulate the world s news Wise and insightful Simon offers hope to all who care about maintaining the free flow of information in a world full of would be censors Ann Cooper Columbia Journalism School
