Miller, Jill McCracken, 2003-01-30 Annotation Volume illuminates many of the tensions present in the field of rhetoric and composition studies explaining the scope and role of rhetoric in contemporary scholarship For scholars and other individuals interested in rhetoric and composition studies P

What is the New Rhetoric? Susan E. Thomas, 2009-03-26 The Age of Information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world particularly on theories and practices of writing With the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres sectors and cultures In recent decades the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty first century The essays collected here represent variations on these themes with each attempting to answer the title's deliberately provocative question addressing particularly How the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today How it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated How rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy

The Centrality of Style Mike Duncan, Star Medzerian Vanguri, 2013-04-07 In The Centrality of Style editors Mike Duncan and Star Medzerian Vanguri argue that style is a central concern of composition studies even as they demonstrate that some of the most compelling work in the area has emerged from the margins of the field

Disrupting Pedagogies in the Knowledge Society: Countering Conservative Norms with Creative Approaches Faulkner, Julie, 2011-12-31 This book examines a range of disruptive approaches exploring how challenge dissonance and discomfort might be mobilized in educational contexts in order to shift taken for granted attitudes and beliefs held by both educators and learners Provided by publisher

Renewing Rhetoric's

Relation to Composition Shane Borrowman, Stuart Brown, Thomas Miller, 2010-02-25 Renewing Rhetoric's Relation to Composition comprehensively examines the development of rhetoric and composition using the writings of Theresa Jarnagin Enos as points of departure for studies of broader trends. Chapters explore such topics as the historical relations of rhetoric and composition, their evolution within programs of study, and Enos's research on gender. The volume presents the growing disjunction between rhetoric and composition and paints a compelling picture of the current state of both disciplines as well as their origins. This volume acknowledges the influential role that Theresa Enos has had in the writing and rhetoric disciplines. Her career provides benchmarks for plotting developments in rhetoric and composition, including the evolving relations between the two. This collection offers a tribute to her work and to the new directions in the discipline stemming from her research. With an all-star line-up of contributors, it also represents the state of the art in rhetoric and composition scholarship and it will serve current and future scholars in both disciplines.

Transforming Ethos Rosanne Carlo, 2020-09-01 In Transforming Ethos, Rosanne Carlo synthesizes philosophy, rhetorical theory, and composition theory to clarify the role of ethos and its potential for identification and pedagogy for writing studies. Carlo renews focus on the ethos appeal and highlights its connection to materiality and place as a powerful instrument for writing and its teaching, one that insists on the relational and multimodal aspects of writing and makes prominent its inherent ethical considerations and possibilities. Through case studies of professional and student writings as well as narrative reflections, Transforming Ethos imagines the ethos appeal as not only connected to style and voice but also a process of habituation related to practices of everyday interaction in places and with things. Carlo addresses how ethos aids in creating identification transcending divisions between the self and other. She shows that when writers tell their experiences, they create and reveal the ethos appeal, and this type of narrative multimodal writing is central to scholarship in rhetoric and composition as well as the teaching of writing. In addition, Carlo considers how composition is becoming compromised by professionalization, particularly through the idea of transfer, which is overtaking the critical work of self-development with others that a writing classroom should encourage in college students. Transforming Ethos cements ethos as an essential term for the modern practice and teaching of rhetoric and places it at the heart of writing studies. This book will be significant for students and scholars in rhetoric and composition as well as those interested in higher education more broadly.

Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow, 2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power, Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing. Now in Vernacular Eloquence, he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory. The core idea is simple: we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest (speaking) for the language activity most people find hardest (writing). Speech, with its spontaneity, naturalness of expression, and fluidity of thought, has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits. Through several easy-to-employ techniques, writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger, clearer, more natural writing. This simple idea, it turns out, has deep repercussions Our culture of literacy Elbow argues functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow s previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand

Unruly Rhetorics Jonathan Alexander, Susan C. Jarratt, Nancy Welch, 2018-10-26 What forces bring ordinary people together in public to make their voices heard What means do they use to break through impediments to democratic participation Unruly Rhetorics is a collection of essays from scholars in rhetoric communication and writing studies inquiring into conditions for activism political protest and public assembly An introduction drawing on Jacques Rancière and Judith Butler explores the conditions under which civil discourse cannot adequately redress suffering or injustice The essays offer analyses of unruliness in case studies from both twenty first century and historical sites of social justice protest The collection concludes with an afterword highlighting and inviting further exploration of the ethical political and pedagogical questions unruly rhetorics raise Examining multiple modes of expression embodied print digital and sonic Unruly Rhetorics points to the possibility that unruliness more than just one of many rhetorical strategies within political activity is constitutive of the political itself

Lost Texts in Rhetoric and Composition Deborah H. Holdstein, 2023-05-03 A project of recovery and reanimation Lost Texts in Rhetoric and Composition foregrounds a broad range of publications that deserve renewed attention Contributors to this volume reclaim these lost texts to reenvision the rhetorical tradition itself Authors discussed include not only twentieth century American compositionists but also a linguist a poet a philosopher a painter a Renaissance rhetorician and a nineteenth century pioneer of comics the collection also features some less studied works by authors who remain well known These texts will give rise to new conversations about current ideas in rhetoric and composition This volume contains discussion of the following authors and titles Judah Messer Leon The Book of the Honeycomb s Flow Angel DeCora Sterling Andrus Leonard English Composition as a Social Problem Rodolphe Töpffer William James Kenneth Burke Adrienne Rich Ann E Berthoff John Mohawk Western Peoples Natural Peoples William Vande Kopple William Irmscher Beat Not the Poor Desk Walter J Ong Geneva Smitherman Thomas Zebroski Linda Brodkey Craig S Womack Deborah Cameron James Slevin Marilyn Sternglass and William E Coles Jr
