The Routledge Handbook of Language in the Workplace Bernadette Vine, 2017-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Language in the Workplace provides a comprehensive survey of linguistic research on language in the workplace written by top scholars in the field from around the world The Handbook covers theoretical and methodological approaches explores research in different types of workplace settings and examines some key areas of workplace talk that have been investigated by workplace researchers Issues of identity have become a major focus in recent workplace research and the Handbook highlights some core issues of relevance in this area such as gender leadership and intercultural communication As the field has developed applications of workplace research for both native and non native speakers have emerged Insights can inform and improve input from practitioners training workers in a range of fields and across a variety of contexts and the Handbook foregrounds some of the ways workplace research can do this This is an invaluable resource for researchers and graduate students interested in learning more about workplace discourse

Disturbing Argument Catherine Palczewski, 2015-01-30 This edited volume represents the best of the scholarship presented at the 18th National Communication Association American Forensic Association Conference on Argumentation This biennial conference brings together a lively group of argumentation scholars from a range of disciplinary approaches and a variety of countries Disturbing Argument contains selected works that speak both to the disturbing prevalence of violence in the contemporary world and to the potential of argument itself to disturb the very relations of power that enable that violence Scholars essays analyze a range of argument forms including body and visual argument interpersonal and group argument argument in electoral politics public argument argument in social protest scientific and technical argument and argument and debate pedagogy Contributors study argument using a range of methodological approaches from social scientifically informed studies of interpersonal group and political argument to humanistic examinations of argument theory political discourse and social protest to creatively informed considerations of argument practices that truly disturb the boundaries of what we consider argument Environmental Communication and Community Tarla Peterson, Hanna Bergeå, Andrea Feldpausch-Parker, Kaisa Raitio, 2016-04-28 As society has become increasingly aware of environmental issues the challenge of structuring public participation opportunities that strengthen democracy while promoting more sustainable communities has become crucial for many natural resource agencies industries interest groups and publics The processes of negotiating between the often disparate values held by these diverse groups and formulating and implementing policies that enable people to fulfil goals associated with these values can strengthen communities as well as tear them apart This book provides a critical examination of the role communication plays in social transition through both construction and destruction of community The authors examine the processes and practices put in play when people who may or may not have previously seen themselves as interconnected communicate with each other often in situations where they are competing for the same resources Drawing upon a diverse selection of case studies on the American Asian and European continents the chapters chart a range of approaches to environmental communication including symbolic construction modes of organising and agonistic politics of communication This volume will be of great interest to researchers teachers and practitioners of environmental communication environmental conflict community development and natural resource management The Evolution of Political Rhetoric Robert X. Browning, 2020-12-15 Volume 6 of The Year in C SPAN Archives Research series focuses on the rapidly changing rhetoric coloring American politics An increasingly polarized electorate combined with advances in technology have led to a combative and pitched rhetoric through more and more outlets Each chapter is interdisciplinary in nature drawing on communication studies political science history and other fields Using the extensive collection of the C SPAN Video Library chapters cover the highly visible Thomas and Kavanaugh judicial nomination hearings as well as the ongoing debate around impeachment Other pieces focus on the rhetoric of the 2008 Wall Street crisis presidential campaign announcements White House press conferences floor time by women in the House of Representatives

the use of Twitter by legislators and the puzzle of zero population growth Collectively they paint a picture of how Congress and the president approach the broad topic of political rhetoric using C SPAN video as the basis for their research The C SPAN Video Library is unique because there is no other research collection that is based on video research of contemporary politics Methodologically distinctive much of the research uses new techniques to analyze video text and spoken words of political leaders No other book examines such a wide range of topics from immigration to climate change to race relations using video as the basis for research Environmental Conflict Management Tracylee Clarke,Tarla Rai Peterson,2015-03-04 A step by step guide connecting theory to practice Environmental Conflict Management introduces students to the research and practice of environmental conflict and provides a step by step process for engaging stakeholders and other interested parties in the management of environmental disputes In each chapter authors Dr Tracylee Clarke and Dr Tarla Rai Peterson first introduce a specific concept or process step and then provide exercises worksheets role plays and brief case studies so students can directly apply what they are learning The appendix includes six additional extended case studies for further analysis In addition to providing practical steps for understanding and managing conflict the text identifies the most relevant laws and policies to help students make more informed decisions Students will develop techniques for public involvement and community outreach strategies for effective meeting management approaches to negotiating options and methodologies for communicating concerns and working through differences and outlines for implementing and evaluating strategies for sustaining positive community relations Arguments and Arguing Thomas A. Hollihan,Kevin T. Baaske,2022-05-06 Arguing is a fundamental human activity it is a process of making sense of the world and negotiating understandings with others Arguing can be and often is healthy for both relationships and societies The values of the community are shaped through people sharing their opinions offering reasons in support of their beliefs and deliberating Hollihan and Baaske present techniques for effective analysis logical reasoning and socially constructive argumentation They illustrate their discussions of theory and practice with multiple engaging examples The book focuses on narrative argument as a story backed by evidence to evaluate courses of action or to resolve conflicts A chapter on visual argumentation highlights the power of visual elements in arguments Effective arguing requires a sensitivity to the demands of different argumentative contexts Readers will become familiar with the elements of argument essential for politics the law debate business and relationships Narrative arguments are rational arguments Learning about the narrative reasoning process helps us tell more convincing credible and compassionate stories and to become better critics of the stories we hear Argumentation Lapakko Ph. D. David Lapakko Ph. D.,David Lapakko,2009-10 Argumentation Critical Thinking in Action 2nd ed explores a wide variety of issues and concepts connected to making arguments responding to the arguments of others and using good critical thinking skills to analyze persuasive communication Key topics include the nature of claims evidence and reasoning common fallacies in reasoning traits associated with good critical thinking how language is used strategically in argument ways to organize an argumentative case how to refute an opposing argument or case cultural dimensions of argument and ways to make a better impression either orally or in writing Agreement in Argumentation Francesca Santulli, Chiara Degano, 2022-11-29 This book explores the construction of agreement in the argumentative process aiming to investigate how the activation of shared knowledge values and beliefs leads to the creation of a common ground between the speaker and the audience in the pursuit of persuasion In the first part of the book the authors examine agreement from a historical and theoretical perspective setting in relation major ancient and contemporary approaches to argumentation with special regard for the notions of ethos objects of agreement starting points and topoi all with a focus on their deployment in discourse This is complemented with a compendium of linguistic resources that can be exploited for the discursive construction of agreement offering a principled selection of structures across different levels of language description The second part of the book is devoted to the investigation of actual uses of agreement in a choice of institutional genres within the domain of the US presidential elections the Presidential Announcement the TV debate and the Inaugural Address Due to their political relevance and cultural salience these genres provide an ideal interface for observing the interplay of discursive and argumentative components against the backdrop of a shared cultural heritage rich with intertextual references The application of the theoretical framework developed in the first part of the book to the analysis of real political discourse carried out in the second is the distinguishing feature of this volume making it of interest to linguists and argumentation scholars as well as to political scientists and communicators
