About

Oprah Winfrey is a global media leader, philanthropist, producer and actress.

She has created an unparalleled connection with people around the world, making her one of the most respected and admired people today.

As Chairman and CEO, she's guiding her successful cable network, OWN: Oprah Winfrey Network, and is the founder of O, The Oprah Magazine and Harpo Films. This December, Winfrey will embark on a multi-city speaking tour in Australia and New Zealand, on the heels of her eight-city U.S. arena tour and transformational weekend in 2014.

Winfrey is an Academy Award-nominated actress for her role in "The Color Purple" and earned critical acclaim in "Lee Daniels' The Butler." Most recently, she produced and acted in the Academy Award-winning film "Selma." For 25 years, Winfrey was host of the award-winning talk show "The Oprah Winfrey Show."

One of the world's leading philanthropists, Winfrey has long believed that education is the door to freedom. In April of 2014, Winfrey partnered with Starbucks to create the Teavana Oprah Chai tea, which is sold in Starbucks and Teavana stores across the U.S. and Canada. A donation from each purchase is made from Starbucks to the Oprah Winfrey Leadership Academy Foundation to benefit educational opportunities for youth, which in turn provides funding to national charity organizations including Girls Inc., National CARES Mentoring Movement, Pathways to College and U.S. Dream Academy.

In October 2015, The Oprah Winfrey Leadership Academy for Girls in South Africa will be graduating its fifth class. Winfrey established the school in 2007 to provide education for academically gifted girls from disadvantaged backgrounds. Graduates of the school have continued on to higher education both in South Africa and at colleges and universities around the world. In 2013, Winfrey was awarded the Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor.

Biography Examples Of A Migrant:

Biography and Education Michael Erben, 2005-08-12 Over recent years biographical studies have gained an increasingly important place in academic study The two are inextricably linked Education uses biography in teaching and in biography education features strongly as a formative stage in personal development This book elaborates on the analytical work that has drawn attention to biography and education and seeks to expand the understanding of lives in educational contexts Mainstream sociology has been quick to embrace this treatment of individuals as biographical appearances but it is even more relevant in the field of education

Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02 Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Thoret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak's useful big picture introduction traces the history of auto biography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in auto biography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada

Biography and Turning Points in Europe and America Karla B. Hackstaff, Feiwel Kupferberg, Catherine Négroni, 2012 This sociological collection advances the argument that the concept of a turning point expands our understanding of life experiences from a descriptive to a deeper and more abstract level of analysis It addresses the conceptual issue of what distinguishes turning points from life transitions in general and raises crucial questions about the application of turning points as a biographical research method Biography and turning points in Europe and America is all the more distinctive and significant due to its broad empirical database The anthology includes authors from ten different countries providing a number of contexts for thinking about how turning points relate to constructions of meaning shaped by globalization and by cultural and structural meanings unique to each country The book will be useful across a wide range of social sciences and particularly valuable for researchers needing a stronger theoretical base for biographical work

The Making of Migrant Entrepreneurs Dominic Zimmermann, 2016-02-02 Given the diversification of global migration patterns the increased importance attributed to knowledge and innovation for economic development and the rise of social policy regimes that emphasise self responsibility migrant entrepreneurship has become a widely discussed form of migrant incorporation in both policy and social sciences Particularly in North America and Europe policy advisors have drafted special programmes and regulations aimed at self employed migrants while social scientists have also come up with a vast body of research although it has not been exempt from certain controversies and biases Migrant entrepreneurship has frequently been associated either with rags to riches success stories or with unremunerative hard work and marginalised social positions Also a great deal of research has strongly and consistently focused on entrepreneurial cultures and ethnic bonds related to ethnic entrepreneurship and consequently other forms of migrant self employment have been given only given scant attention Yet more recently other aspects including institutional embeddedness and gender have become important focal points of research studies and have opened up new promising avenues to explore the phenomenon This book offers a comprehensive up to date overview of the research area covering migrant entrepreneurship and self employment in addition to investigating the skills of migrant entrepreneurs departing from the question which migrants become self employed the highly skilled ones due to their excellence or the ones with a low skill endowment because they cannot find a satisfying employment in the labour market Moreover the included case study on highly skilled Peruvian migrant micro entrepreneurs in Switzerland demonstrates the complex interplay of elements at work before and during the business foundation such as an unsatisfying socio economic integration the search for social recognition and agency the reconfiguration of gender roles and the availability of resources to exploit transnational business opportunities

Biographical Methods and Professional Practice Prue Chamberlayne, Joanna Bornat, Ursula Apitzsch, 2004-03-10
Biographical methods combine a focus on lifetime individual experience as a component of understanding human agency with an examination of interactions with social structures institutions This text provides examples of how such approaches have been applied in practice settings in policy initiatives Biographical methods and professional practice Chamberlayne, Prue, Bornat, Joanna, 2004-03-10 This book uses a range of interpretive approaches to reveal the dynamics of service users and professionals individual experiences and life worlds From their research the contributors show how biographical methods can improve theoretical understanding of professional practice as well as enrich the learning and development of professionals and promote more meaningful and creative practitioner service user relationships The book reviews applications of biographical methods in both policy and practice in a range of professional contexts from health and social care to education and employment explores the impact of social change in three main arenas transformation from Eastern to Western types of society in Europe major shifts in social and welfare principles experiences of immigration and of new cultural diversities on professional practice critically evaluates subjective and reflexive processes in interactions between researchers practitioners and users of services considers the institutional arrangements and cultural contexts which support effective and sensitive interventions draws on actual projects and tracks reflection progress and outcomes With contributions from leading international experts it provides a valuable comparative perspective Researchers policy analysts and practitioners postgraduate students teachers and trainers will find this book a stimulating read Ethnicity, Belonging and Biography Gabriele Rosenthal, Artur Bogner, 2009 The subjects of ethnicity and collective belonging have enjoyed high priority on the agenda for social science research over the last 20 years This volume focuses on research on the perspectives and biographical experiences of concrete historical actors within the contexts of migration cultural diversity and social conflicts

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Migration and Social Pathways Anna Guhlich, 2017-10-02 The landscape of European migration has changed considerably over the past decades in particular after the fall of the iron curtain and again after the EU enlargement to the east The author researches the phenomenon of highly qualified migration using the example of migration between the Czech Republic and Germany The book reveals diverse strategies migrants use to respond to the possible devaluation of their qualification e g by making use of their language skills starting new studies or using transnational knowledge

Migrant Scholars Researching Migration Marco Gemignani, Yolanda Hernández-Albújar, Jana Sládková, 2023-10-03 How can biography and reflexivity become integral processes of an inquiry How do we apply these processes to our research and to our accounts of ourselves Presenting studies by migration scholars who are migrants themselves Migrant Scholars Researching Migration illustrates the creative and affective function of embedding one's research in subjectivity reflexivity and personal biography The book shows that linking personal experiences and biographies with research practices and agendas can be instrumental to the development of knowledges and new methodologies The authors demonstrate for instance how their migration backgrounds have affected what kind of research they should conduct They also describe how their research findings have changed their understanding of their personal positionings as migrants and scholars This book debunks the dogma of separating the researcher from their investigation by placing the researchers experiences and multi layered reflections at the center of their scholarly work It sheds light on the importance of reflexivity and subjectivity as processes and assets in research rather than obstacles Migrant Scholars Researching Migration will appeal to researchers and students interested in methodology biographical research theories of knowledge and scholars of migration and diaspora studies Chapters Chapter 14 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
