Bbc News From Elsewhere:

Love Lives Carol Dyhouse, 2021-02-11 The story of how women's lives, loves and dreams have been reshaped since 1950 the year of Walt Disney's Cinderella and a time when teenage girls dreamed of marriage Mr Right and happy endings Cinderella stories captured the imagination of girls in the 1950s when dreams of meeting the right man could seem like a happy ending a solution to life's problems But over the next fifty years women's lives were transformed not by the magic wand of a fairy godmother nor by marrying princes but by education work birth control and feminism However while widening opportunities for women were seen as progress feminists were regularly caricatured as man haters cast in the role of ugly sisters witches or wicked fairies in the fairy tale This book is about the reshaping of women's lives, loves and dreams since 1950 the year in which Walt Disney's film Cinderella gave expression to popular ideas of romance and at a time when marriage was a major determinant of female life chances and teenage girls dreamed of Mr Right and happy endings It ends with the runaway success of Disney's Frozen in 2013 a film with relevance to very different times Along the way it illuminates how women's expectations and emotional landscapes have shifted asking bold questions about how women's lives have been transformed since 1950 How have women's changing life experiences been mirrored in new expectations about marriage intimacy and family life How have new forms of independence through education and work and greater control over childbearing altered women's life ambitions And were feminists right to believe that sexual equality would improve relationships between men and women

Cinematic Tourist Mobilities and the Plight of Development Rodanthi Tzanelli,2018-11-09 It is said that movies have encroached upon social realities creating tourism enclaves based on distortions of history and heritage or simulations that disregard both. What localities and nation states value are discarded, suppressed or modified beyond recognition in neoliberal markets, thus flattening out human experience, destroying natural habitats in the name of development and putting the future of whole ecosystems at risk. Without disregarding such developmental risks, Cinematic Tourist Mobilities and the Plight of Development explores how en route to any beneficial or eco-destructive development, film tourist industries co-produce atmospheres of place and culture with tourists, film fans, local activists and nation states. Drawing on international examples of cinematically induced tourism and tourismophobic activism, Tzanelli demonstrates how the allegedly unilateral industry-driven design of location stands at a crossroads between political structures, systems of capitalist development and resurgent localised agency. With an interdisciplinary methodological and epistemological portfolio connected to the new mobilities paradigm, this volume will appeal to scholars, students and practitioners interested in tourism, migration and urban studies in sociology, anthropology, geography and international relations.

Citizens of Two Kingdoms: Civil Society and Christian Religion in Greater China Shun-hing Chan, Jonathan W. Johnson, 2021-04-06. Co-edited by Shun-hing Chan and Jonathan Johnson. Citizens of Two Kingdoms examines the complex relationships of civil society, Christian organizations and individual Christians in mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Macau. Different authors investigate to what extent Christian organizations or individual Christians demonstrate the quality of civic virtues or virtual citizenship in the four regions and reflect on the promises and difficulties of applying civil society theories to Chinese societies. Some authors focus their studies on the relationships in mainland China under the regime of Xi Jinping. Contributors include Richard Madsen, Zhidong Hao, Teresa Wright, Fredrik F. Iltman, Lauren F. Pfister, Lida V. Nedilsky, Mary Mee Yin, Yuen Shun-hing, Chan Wen-ben, Kuo Yik-fai, Tam and Gerda Wielander.

People before Markets Daniel Scott Souleles, Johan Gersel, Morten Sørensen, Thanning, 2022-11-03. This innovative volume presents twenty comparative case studies of important global questions such as: Where should our food come from? What should we do about climate change? and Where should innovation come from? A variety of solutions are proposed and compared, including market-based economic and neoliberal approaches as well as those determined by humane values and ethical and socially responsible perspectives. Drawing on original research, its chapters show that more responsible solutions are very often both more effective and better aligned with human values. Providing an important counterpoint to the standard capitalist thinking propounded in business school education, People Before Markets reveals the problematic assumptions of incumbent frameworks for solving global problems and inspires the next generation of business and social science students to pursue more effective and human-centered solutions.

Personalism and Personalist Regimes Alex Baturo, Luca Anceschi, Francesco Cavatorta, 2024-07-04. Personalist leaders such as Russia's Vladimir Putin, Belarus's Alexander Lukashenko or Venezuela's Nicolás Maduro are increasingly prominent players in the international landscape; their motivations and policies, however, are poorly understood. The regimes they lead are difficult to examine, mostly because of their most defining feature an inordinate concentration of power in the hands of one single individual Yet personalist leaders do not rule alone even if they do not always govern through institutional channels How do personalist regimes really work How do their rulers acquire and maintain personal control How does contemporary personal rule differ from how it was practised during the Cold War These are the key questions addressed in Personalism and Personalist Regimes which offers a systematic examination of the logic of personalism or personalist rule tackling comprehensively the study of personalist leaders and personalist regimes The book is underpinned by a theoretical framework that combines historical and comparative analyses brought forward through a series of detailed country studies authored by a distinguished group of comparativists and area studies experts The book also revisits and builds upon Sultanistic Regimes the seminal study by H E Chehabi and Juan Linz In contrast to Sultanistic Regimes that studied sultanism an extreme form of personalism Personalism and Personalist Regimes examines personal rule on its full continuum from Turkey under Erdoğan or Venezuela under Maduro to Turkmenistan under Berdimuhamedov or Libya under Gaddafi Because personalism or personal rule can be present across all regimes the book also includes several studies of personalism and institutions in party dictatorships China or Cuba amongst others
