Be the Change Linda Darling-Hammond, Nicole Ramos-Beban, Rebecca Padnos Altamirano, Maria E. Hyler, 2016 Be the Change tells the remarkable story of an innovative public high school in East Palo Alto modeled after successful small schools in New York City Guided by the expertise of renowned educator Linda Darling Hammond it offers authentic and engaging instruction that has allowed students who start off far behind to graduate and go on to college in record numbers Be the Change Linda Darling-Hammond, Nicole Ramos-Beban, Rebecca Padnos Altamirano, Maria E. Hyler, 2016-01-03 Be the Change tells the remarkable story of an innovative public high school launched by dedicated teachers in East Palo Alto California one of a growing number of low income communities starved of the resources needed to serve its students and schools Chronicling a rags to riches story of how two very different communities came together to change the historical trajectory of educational failure that had robbed so many students of their futures Be the Change demonstrates how to plant the seeds of new possibilities in its place The school s unique design modeled after successful small schools in New York City offers authentic and engaging instruction in a personalized setting that has allowed students who start off far behind to graduate and go on to college in record numbers Each chapter examines one of the critical elements the teachers found essential to enable student success the creation of an academic culture the development of high standards with high supports and the process of learning to teach so that students can learn A powerful and compelling tale about how educators parents and representatives of one of America s most powerful universities came together to create a school that is now a beacon of pride and hope Their struggle to overcome the obstacles they encountered along the way will inspire others who seek to find ways to use education as a means to break the cycle of poverty and to expand opportunity and justice Pedro A Noguera distinguished professor of education Graduate School of Education and Information Sciences UCLA This is the story of a little school that could Could get students to college and beyond that is It s filled with evidence quotes and anecdotes but more importantly it demonstrates that will and skill aligned with vision and values results in learning environments in which students thrive While acknowledging the challenges trials and tribulations of creating and leading an urban high school the authors share their success in a passionate and compelling way inviting others to learn alongside them as they build successful futures for their students Douglas Fisher professor of educational leadership San Diego State University With demanding academics loving support and genuine affirmation the staff parents community members and other supporters of EPAA as well as Stanford faculty and staff present an encouraging picture of the kind of high school all young people deserve This kind of success is not easy but in describing how it can be done Linda Darling Hammond and her co authors have provided a stirring example for all of those interested in equity and hope for our public schools Sonia Nieto professor emerita Language Literacy and Culture College of Education University of Massachusetts Amherst A Coherent Curriculum for Every Student Edmund C. Short, 2019-10-11 This book exhibits a collection of proposals for how school curriculum may be conceived designed and realized These proposals are drawn from writers both past and present who have presented some particular vision of what curriculum could be like for Pre K 12 schools and have sought to convince others to adopt their proposal for use in some actual school situation The proposals differ from one another in a variety of ways including in their purposes their contents and their perspectives and thus pose a wealth of options for consideration by those who are planning to change their school curriculum to something new and more suitable for their particular clientele Readers will need to weigh the appeal of various proposals presented here against criteria they have for locating an optimum model for their particular situation The proposals selected for inclusion in this book address the whole of the curriculum all levels all subjects all age groups they deal with entire program change rather than with incidental changes in content program arrangements teaching approaches or other limited alterations This book is intended to be a useful resource for those responsible for making decisions in a particular school or school district or at a broader policy making level about what the entire curriculum should be and should include It draws attention to the work of many thoughtful persons who have dealt with the issue of what a coherent curriculum might be like and who in some instances have set up actual programs based on their ideas

The Human Side of Changing Education Julie M. Wilson, 2018-04-18 Make change humanly possible Today's schools know they must make problem solving collaboration self directed learning and creativity an integral part of the school's DNA but they don't always know how When we ask schools to change we are asking human beings to change This requires special tools and a human centered approach In The Human Side of Changing Education leaders will learn to make sense of their challenging change journeys and accelerate effective implementation With this practical framework that includes human centered tools resources and mini case studies readers will learn to navigate and succeed on their unique path of change Understand why resistance is to be expected and how to get through it Discover three different kinds of change strategies and when to use which one Learn how to use the messy middle of change where real transformation happens Change the heart of the system by enabling the hearts and minds of those who make schools work Julie Wilson is both a visionary and a pragmatist Her book is a wonderfully clear and concise guide for leaders who seek to navigate the road to educational transformation Tony Wagner Author The Global Achievement Gap and Creating Innovators If you want to understand what it takes to create innovative and lasting change then forge ahead with The Human Side of Changing Education and bravely create your own hero's journey This is a valuable guide with practical advice and real life examples to support you in this very complicated and challenging work Ann Koufman Frederick Chief Academic Officer LearnLaunch Institute MAPLE If everyone working in U S K 12 education were to read this book and put even half of its thinking into practice we would be well on our way to a far better society It is timely visionary and relentlessly practical a rare combination Discover what our future could look like if enough of us dare to make it happen Andy Calkins Director Next Generation Learning Challenges at EDUCAUSE

Equity in the Classroom Todd M.

Mealy, Heather Bennett, 2022-11-16 Almost 200 years after public schools moved toward free education for all children educators are still exploring the best approaches for promoting equitable student growth In early 2020 Covid 19 operational changes and the challenge to confront America's most profound racial problems exposed many equity issues in schools As a result educators were called to reimagine the field of education as the curtain closed on the first quarter of the 21st century The essays in this book challenge classroom instructors to consider new approaches to education theory classroom praxis and teaching content The chapters herein draw on mixed methods and narrative form essays to provide practical tools and techniques for building equitable schools Viewing schools as extensions of society at large this book delivers innovative curricular approaches to STEM education the Humanities and applied theater The authors offer methods for empowering student voices managing moments of crisis increasing representation in computer science and implementing restorative justice disciplinary practices in learning institutions Essays provide all educators with proven instructional models for curricular equity with the goal of moving America closer to a multicultural democracy "Why We Drop Out" Deborah L. Feldman, Antony T. Smith, Barbara L. Waxman, 2017 Through engaging stories and the use of students voices this book corrects persistent misconceptions about youth who drop out of high school Based on research conducted with high school dropouts in both urban and rural communities the authors argue that contrary to popular belief most dropouts are not disengaged from school at an early age Many have positive memories of their education both social and academic that educators and policymakers can draw on to create successful prevention and intervention practices The narratives and insights presented here will help readers to better understand the interplay of school related and personal factors that lead students to drop out of school Why We Drop Out is essential reading for K 12 educators school principals counselors psychologists and everyone concerned with our nation's dropout crisis Every educator will recognize in these stories the daily opportunities that adults have to reach out and grab onto kids who are desperate for a hand and just need someone to pull them over that line From the Foreword by Camille A Farrington PhD author of Failing at School Lessons for Redesigning Urban High Schools This book greatly improves our understanding of the complex and long term process of dropping out of high school Russell W Rumberger UC Santa Barbara director California Dropout Research Project A must read for any teacher principal or superintendent interested in changing the lives of our students most at risk Greg Baker superintendent Bellingham Public Schools This is a book that everyone with a stake in education must read Dr Shivohn Garcia SUNY Empire State College Moving from Trendy to Transformative Social-Emotional Learning Linsay DeMartino, Lisa Fetman, 2025-04-21 PreK 12 schools across the United States are adopting social and emotional learning SEL programs for both students and educators However most of these schools are adopting non contextualized trendy and traditional SEL programs in which students and educators are conditioned to apply certain knowledge and skills that speak to only a small subset of students rather than utilizing authentic equity driven SEL models As such SEL programming must be transformed and sustained to reflect new and shifting identities of both students and educators like the expanding ability cultural gender linguistic race religion and socioeconomic formations and their intersections as well as tensions within predominantly white institutions Moving from Trendy to Transformative Social Emotional Learning presents a diverse collection of chapters that discuss authentic and contextualized equity and justice models that are focused on the possibilities of transformative SEL programming The book s primary focus is on innovative and creative methodologies and practices that aspiring and practicing educators can use right away Because the editors and contributors are former or current PreK 12 practitioners and or educational scholars this book is written for a broad educational audience Directed to both preservice and practicing teachers across PreK 12 grade levels school types and geographic regions looking to improve their practice the text provides entry points for transforming the SEL landscape in favor of liberatory justice based and equitable practices Additionally this book is ideal for teacher and administrator preparation programs as well as PreK 12 professional development because it guides readers through theoretical and empirical discussions punctuated by hands on applications that enable real time application and concludes with interactive features including case studies extension activities and discussion prompts Specific topics include enacting culturally relevant SEL addressing youth mental health through cultivating authentic belonging and mindfulness in classrooms equitable SEL curricular and pedagogical practices developing adult SEL culturally grounded identity development ensuring safe environments for building identity and relationships and SEL in teacher education and mentorship Perfect for courses such as Introduction to Educating For Equity And Social Justice Introduction to Cultivating Culturally Responsive Classrooms Foundations of Classroom Management Introduction to Diversity Equity and Inclusion in Schools Principles of Professional Collaboration In Education Introduction To School Improvement Introduction to Teacher Leadership And School Improvement Introduction to Curriculum Instruction and Assessment Principles of Building Classroom Communities Principles of Teaching Diverse Learners Principles of Youth Voices in Education
