Transformation Rev. Joseph A. Heim,2016-01-26

Transformation The People and Events That Changed the Thinking of a Priest By Rev Joseph A Heim In this inspiring memoir Rev Joseph A Heim MM recounts the transformative relationships and events of a lifetime of faith and service From growing up in Philadelphia to the challenging years of St Charles Seminary to three plus decades of missionary work in Venezuela Heim examines those moments which shaped him as a priest and as a human being acknowledging and dissecting his own struggles and transformations along the way My theological education was very formal writes Heim my pastoral training in as much as it existed at all was rather ritualistic and my spiritual formation very legalistic Life and events opened me up and forced me to re think much of what I had simply accepted

Transformation The People and Events That Changed the Thinking of a Priest then is more than autobiography it is a chronicle of living faith of the strength that can be found in challenging one s own beliefs

The Alchemy of Addiction Stephen J. Costello,2024-08-01 Within this important book Stephen J Costello draws on Eastern philosophy Western psychology and wisdom traditions to offer an interpretation and answer to the multidimensional problem of addiction The nature of pleasure pain and attachment are discussed together with stress as a key source of our suffering Justifying and grounding the work is C G Jung s central insight that the solution to our disordered desires lies in cultivating a spiritual approach to life As such a detailed exploration of the Twelve Steps of recovery is elucidated from the threefold perspective of the philosophy of Advaita the Enneagram system and the Christian contemplations of Richard Rohr John Main and Thomas Keating as well as St Ignatius of Loyola The work concludes with a brief look at Platonic ethics especially the virtue of temperance St Benedict s spirituality of humility and the law of dharma as a blueprint for purposeful non addicted living This book will appeal to a wide variety of readers such as mental health professionals in the counselling and psychotherapy professions as well as students of depth psychology and philosophy

Why Can't Church Be More Like an AA Meeting? Stephen R. Haynes,2021-10-26 Do Christians need recovery Or is recovery something needed by the church itself Addiction whether to a substance or to a behavior is a problem within faith communities just like it is everywhere else But because churches are rarely experienced as safe places for dealing with addiction co addiction or the legacy of family dysfunction Christians tend to seek recovery from these conditions in Twelve Step fellowships Once they become accustomed to the ethos of vulnerability acceptance and healing that these fellowships provide however they are often left feeling that the church has failed them with many asking why can t church be more like an AA meeting Inspired by his own quest to find in church the sort of mutual support and healing he discovered in Twelve Step fellowships Stephen Haynes explores the history of Alcoholics Anonymous and its relationship to American Christianity He shows that while AA eventually separated from the Christian parachurch movement out of which it emerged it retained aspects of Christian experience that the church itself has largely lost comfort with brokenness and vulnerability an emphasis on honesty and transparency and suspicion toward claims to piety and respectability Haynes encourages Christians to reclaim these distinctive elements of the Twelve Step movement in the process of recovering church He argues that this process must begin with he calls Step 0 which as he knows from personal experience can be the hardest step the admission that despite appearances we are not fine

The Holy in the Night Shannon W. Dycus,2023-10-03 Listen for the voice of God If you approach this Advent season waiting for something in your life in your family or community or in a fractured world you are not alone This season reminds us that our waiting is not wasted Even in our longest nights divine work endures What if we were free enough to do the same Drawing on lectionary scripture readings from the Old and New Testaments and the voices of Black and Brown modern day prophets author Shannon Dycus offers reflections for each day of the season Her meditations stretch open possibilities for faithfulness during silence ambivalence doubt and unknowing This Advent accept the invitation to witness and know the presence of God amid waiting Give voice to freedom grace struggle and beauty to see again the ways that God emerges in this inward season
