Brett: A portrait of Brett Whiteley by his sister Frannie Hopkirk, 2013-02-01 Brett was the sweetest funniest cleverest man I've ever known my confidant and best friend He had a rare radiance an inner certainty which was compelling and hugely attractive Frannie Hopkirk knew Brett Whiteley all his life He was her brother Here for the first time one of those closest to Brett presents a vivid and movingly personal insight into his life and work Throughout their lives despite the sometimes vast geographical distances that separated them brother and sister maintained a strong spiritual connection an unbreakable bond This brave often painfully honest but loving portrait could only have been written by someone who Brett knew and trusted implicitly They were born two years and one week apart into an average to extraordinary middle class family Brett was a streetwise larrikin from the very beginning both a leader and a loner spending hours drawing the harbour from his bedroom window in their Longueville home or plotting all kinds of mischief for his gang Frannie adored her brother and was a willing participant in his chaotic adventures At the time Brett was awarded his travelling art scholarship and left for Europe Frannie married and moved to New Zealand Five years later Frannie was the mother of five and Brett had stepped into the international art scene Staying with Brett and Wendy in New York Frannie had her first taste of the rock n roll generation that held such fascination for Brett and her writing captures the essence of the hip 60s The lives of brother and sister seemed to run on parallel lines and often intersected When the Whiteleys returned to Australia in the 70s Frannie was part of the Lavender Bay scene Throughout Brett's life Frannie watched and celebrated his success as well as sharing his disappointments She also experienced her own joys and tragedies as the mother of a large family in New Zealand then living with her lover in London eventually moving back to Sydney and then to the Central West of NSW a landscape familiar to her and Brett from boarding school This is her story too For Brett Whiteley art and life were intertwined Frannie examines the relationship between her brother's life and art as she discusses Brett's major works and some lesser known paintings and drawings She knew the young man who dreamed of fame as an artist while he sketched the ferries ploughing across Sydney Harbour She understood when he painted The American Dream as a response to the toxic influence of American culture and violence and she shared his devotion and connection to works such as Alchemy During the last years of his life Brett relied on Frannie and she became his closest friend As his addiction to heroin deepened and ultimately controlled him she offered him unconditional love Her compassion and understanding set this book apart as a unique and moving account of the life of one of Australia's greatest artists

A Year with Wendy Whiteley Ashleigh Wilson, 2022-11-01 We sit at the table opposite each other a tape recorder and a microphone between us and I begin by saying that I don't want to start with Brett That's a good idea Wendy looks at me and smiles I didn't start with Brett These days Wendy Whiteley is a legendary figure in the art world the keeper of the Brett Whiteley legacy best known for creating the Secret Garden on the land below her house on Sydney Harbour But before she met Brett Wendy was herself a budding artist her creative work ever since has been under recognised Wendy is a survivor of drug dependence bitter divorce the deaths of Brett and their beloved daughter Arkie More than that she is a remarkable figure whose life has had its own contours and priorities Now in her early eighties reflective yet outspoken with a dry wit she has much to tell about it The product of many hours of candid conversations at the kitchen table in Lavender Bay with acclaimed Brett Whiteley biographer Ashleigh Wilson and supplemented by extensive research and interviews with others this is the unforgettable story of Wendy s life Ashleigh Wilson is the author of Brett Whiteley Art Life and the Other Thing 2016 and On Artists 2019 He was a journalist and editor for more than two decades based in Sydney Brisbane and Darwin and won a Walkley Award for a series on unethical behaviour in the Aboriginal art industry Wilson lives with his partner a designer and their son and works at the Sydney Opera House This astonishing glorious book reveals Wendy Whiteley as she really is an artist in her own right a unique personality Wendy tells the truth she made a garden for Australia And found the right person to tell her amazing story Miriam Margolyes

Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05 Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes

Affairs of the Art Katrina Strickland, 2013-05-01 The reputations of artists are curious things influenced by factors beyond the quality of the work Affairs of the Art explores the role those left behind play in burnishing an artist s reputation after he or she dies Through interviews with those handling the estates of artists including Fred Williams Brett Whiteley John Brack Howard Arkley Bronwyn Oliver George Baldessin and Albert Tucker as well as a raft of art dealers academics curators and auctioneers Strickland traverses the strange alleyways of the art market where power resides with those who hold the best stock and highlights the sometimes heart wrenching way emotion and duty intersect in the making of decisions by those left behind
