

Anke Birkenmaier

James Clifford Kent

Anke Birkenmaier:

Poetry in Pieces Michelle Clayton, 2011-01-10 Set against the cultural and political backdrop of interwar Europe and the Americas Poetry in Pieces is the first major study of the Peruvian poet César Vallejo 1892-1938 to appear in English in more than thirty years. Vallejo lived and wrote in two distinct settings: Peru and Paris, which were continually crisscrossed by new developments in aesthetics, politics, and practices of everyday life. His poetry and prose therefore need to be read in connection with modernity in all its forms and spaces. Michelle Clayton combines close readings of Vallejo's writings with cultural, historical, and theoretical analysis, connecting Vallejo and Latin American poetry to the broader panorama of international modernism and the avant-garde and to writers and artists such as Rainer Maria Rilke, James Joyce, Georges Bataille, and Charlie Chaplin. Poetry in Pieces sheds new light on one of the key figures in twentieth-century Latin American literature while exploring ways of rethinking the parameters of international lyric modernity. The Specter of Races Anke Birkenmaier, 2016-06-20

Arguing that race has been the specter that has haunted many of the discussions about Latin American regional and national cultures today, Anke Birkenmaier shows how theories of race and culture in Latin America evolved dramatically in the period between the two world wars. In response to the rise of scientific racism in Europe and the American hemisphere in the early twentieth century, anthropologists joined numerous writers and artists in founding institutions, journals, and museums that actively pushed for an antiracist science of culture, questioning pseudoscientific theories of race and moving toward more broadly conceived notions of ethnicity and culture. Birkenmaier surveys the work of key figures such as Cuban historian and anthropologist Fernando Ortiz, Haitian scholar and novelist Jacques Roumain, French anthropologist and museum director Paul Rivet, and Brazilian sociologist Gilberto Freyre, focusing on the transnational networks of scholars in France, Spain, and the United States to which they were connected. Reviewing their essays, scientific publications, dictionaries, novels, poetry, and visual arts, the author traces the cultural study of Latin America back to these interdisciplinary discussions about the meaning of race and culture in Latin America, discussions that continue to provoke us today.

Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images, documentary films, and photographic texts. It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes, including pre-revolutionary Cuba, the dream of revolution, and the metaphor of the city frozen in time. The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand-alone, important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary. The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history, including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period, and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising, documentary film, and photography outside the island. Caribbean
