Brian Castro S Fiction Brian Castro S Fiction:

Brian Castro's Fiction , Brian Castro's Fiction Bernadette M. Brennan, 2014-05-14 Brian Castro is one of the most innovative and challenging novelists writing in English today By virtue of his childhood migration from Hong Kong to Australia he is an Australian writer but he writes from the margins of what might be termed mainstream Australian literature In an Australian context Castro has been linked with Patrick White because like White he is an intellectual deeply ironic modernist writer His writing can also be comfortably situated within a wider circle of largely European modernist works by Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Walter Benjamin Virginia Woolf Thomas Mann James Joyce Gustav Flaubert Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald and the list goes on Castros writing conducts richly intertextual conversations with these writers and their work Castros writing is linguistically and structurally adventurous He revels in the ability of good experimental writing to open up imaginative possibilities for the reader He strives always to encourage his readers imagination to embrace heterogeneity and uncertainty His extensive engagement with the great modernist writers of the 20th century combined with his Australian Chinese cross cultural concerns make his work unique amongst Australian writers Castros fiction is becoming increasingly recognized for its brilliance around the world Readers and scholars particularly from France Germany and China are discovering the delightful challenges and rewards his writing offers In Australia however Castros writing has often been dismissed by academics and major publishing houses as being too cerebral or too literary He has been labeled a writers writer because of the literariness of his concerns and the vast sweep of intertextual references that inform his narratives Castros writing demands a committed intelligent and passionate reader He constructs narratives of absences gaps and multiple perspectives in the expectation that his reader will make the necessary imaginative connections and in a sense become the writer of his text Castro has stated that the kind of novel he most enjoys reading is one he does not understand immediately one that requires him to search out references and make discoveries This is the kind of novel he writes Perhaps for this reason he has not attracted the large readership his work deserves This study of Castros fiction has two major objectives to open up multiple points of entry into Castros texts as a means of encouraging readers to make their own imaginative connections and to explore diverse ways of reading as well as to initiate further published scholarly discussions and readings of Castros work In this first critical study of Brian Castros work Bernadette Brennan offers original and creative readings of Castros eight published novels Brennan guides the reader through Castros elaborate semantics and at times dizzying language games to elucidate clearly Castros imaginative concerns and strategies She opens up the many rhizomatic connections between Castros work and the multitude of texts and theorists that influence it and with whom it converses And through all of this she stays true to Castros imaginative project to remain always open ended always gesturing towards possibility rather than certainty and closure Brian Castros Fiction is an important book for all literature and Australasian collections throughout the world The Verse Novel Linda Weste, 2023-07-28 In these thirty five interviews with verse novelists from Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Linda Weste explores the uniqueness of storytelling through poetry and the genre of the verse novel Her subjects are notable representatives of a region where verse novels for Adults Children and Young Adults thrive among them is Steven Herrick winner of the prestigious Deutscher Jugendliteraturpreis in 2019 and what they have to say enriches our understanding of the verse novel across each of its publishing categories Chinese Whispers Nicholas Jose,2012 This is a literary journey of an Australian writer s encounter with the culture and people of China particularly its young writers and artists and of the evolving influence of China on the writer s own work and life Nicholas Jose is the author of four novels and two collections of short stories He was Cultural Counsellor at the Australian Embassy Beijing between 1987 and 1990 and has taught Australian Studies in China Australian Book Review ,2005

Translation in Diasporic Literatures Guanglin Wang,2019-03-26 This book investigates issues of translation and survival in diasporic and transcultural literature combining Chinese and Western theories of translation to discuss the centrifugal and centripetal forces that are inherent in diasporic Chinese writers Cutting across philosophy semiotics translation studies and diasporic writing it the book tackles the complexity of translation as a key tool to re read the dynamics of Sino Anglo literary encounters that reset East West parameters Focusing on a range of specialized areas of cultural translation sand China related writings this book is a key read for scholars of translation and cross cultural writings ethnic studies postcolonial studies American and Australian literature studies and global Chinese literature studies Echo Joseph Pivato,2003 This collection of essays explores the literature of Italian immigrants in Canada and their children by focusing on the central role that themes of migration hold in their work Addressing topics such as the oral roots of Canadian immigrant writing the changing place of women in works of the Italian diaspora and the persistent difficulties of translation this work provides an international perspective on some of the most pressing questions in the study of literature today In addition to Canadian works the work of immigrant writers from Australia and other countries is also considered producing nuanced observations of cultural differences and affinities APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books,1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 ,
