 Mason, 2019-09-20 Mr Mason is here at his best While working out very deftly an extremely intricate and clever plot he gives us excellent characterization and a remarkably vivid series of glimpses into different settings and phases of life Colonel John Strickland wandering the earth in a vain attempt to forget his apparently hopeless passion for a famous young society beauty visits Burma where he buys a precious ruby for his lady and is induced to go tiger hunting He encounters no other tiger however except a ruffianly man like a Greek god gone wrong who makes a moment's mysterious appearance in the jungle The jewel and the man are but two of many seemingly disconnected links that are forged into a chain of mystery that steadily tightens its hold upon the reader until the brilliant climax is reached It is questionable whether Mr Mason is to be praised
