

The background of the book cover is a traditional Indian painting. It depicts Lord Rama and Sita in a palace setting. Lord Rama is seated on the floor, wearing a pink and yellow striped dhoti and a pink shawl. He has a long, thin tail-like appendage extending from his back. Sita is seated next to him, wearing a pink and yellow striped sari. They are both looking towards the left. The floor is covered with a pattern of small, colorful flowers. In the background, there are two white pillars with floral decorations. The sky is a light blue with white clouds. The overall style is traditional Indian art.
