A Self Study Course On Political Islam Level 2 Volume 2:

A Self-Study Course on Political Islam, Level 3 Bill Warner, 2011-06 FACT BASED You can find opinions about Islamic doctrine in the main stream media but no facts That is because they do not study the only foundation of knowledge about the true nature of Islam Mohammed and Allah This self study course is based on three of the Islamic source texts the Koran the Sira biography of Mohammed and the Hadith his traditions If your knowledge comes from these original texts it can be verified and your understanding is on firm ground SECRETS REVEALED The Koran and all Islamic texts are difficult to read by design But when the artificial language is stripped away and replaced by simple English the results are astounding We learn that the Islamic ethical system is based on dualism one set of rules for Muslims and another set of rules for non Muslims Kafirs We find out that Mohammed was a slave trader an abuser of women and a warlord Islam as a religion was a failure Only when Mohammed turned to jihad and politics did he have any success A THREE LEVEL SELF STUDY COURSE The self study course covers fourteen different topics about Islam from three different views Each level can be read on its own but there is a progression of information This course will end your confusion about Islam You will understand what underlies the events in the Islamic world and what this means for our civilization This is Level 3 Comparative History of India and Indonesia, Volume 2 India and Indonesia from the 1830s to 1914 Houben, Moor, Hasan, Evans, Djuliat Suroyo, Hiroko Johnson, Bayly, Boomgaard, Emmer, Tichelman, 2023-07-31 Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so
