Aircrash Detective The Quest For Aviation Safety An International Report:

Aircrash Detective: the Quest for Aviation Safety Stephen Barlay,1969 The Crash of Piedmont Airlines Flight 22 Paul D. Houle,2016-01-05 Against a backdrop of inadequate funding misplaced priorities and a lack of manpower American commercial aviation in the 1960s was in a perilous state In July 1967 when a Piedmont Airlines Boeing 727 collided with a Cessna 310 over Hendersonville North Carolina killing 82 people the industry was in crisis Congress called hearings on aviation safety and government and union officials pressured President Lyndon Johnson to request increased funding for aviation safety But the National Transportation Safety Board s probe into the crash was flawed from the start The investigative team was made up of individuals whose companies had certain interests in the outcome The lead investigator was the brother of the vice president of Piedmont Airlines In an effort to shift blame from the government and Piedmont critical conversations recorded on tape never made it into the NTSB s report Maintenance and training records as well as industry warnings of the 727 s operational limitations were also omitted This book reveals the true story of the investigation what was left out and why Information Systems: Failure Analysis John A. Wise,Anthony Debons,2012-12-06 Although system analysis is a well established methodology the specific application of such analysis to information systems is a relatively new endeavor Indeed it may be said to be still in the trial and error stage In recent years such analysis has been given impetus by the numerous accounts of information system failures some of which have led to serious consequences e g the accident at Three Mile Island the chemical spills at Bophal India and at Institute West Virginia and the loss of the space shuttle Challenger Analysis of the failure of the W T Grant Company the third largest retail organization in the United States indicated that improper use of the available information was a significant factor in that failure In spite of these incidents and their widespread impact only meager attempts have been made to develop an effective methodology for analyzing the information systems involved in such incidents There have been no well developed guidelines for determining the causes of such events and for recommending solutions so that similar failures could be avoided To address the need for such a methodology the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO sponsored an Advanced Research Workshop attended by a group of 32 scientists scholars and expert investigators representing a variety of disciplines and countries The Search for Air Safety Stephen Barlay,1970 UFOs and the Extraterrestrial Contact Movement: Unidentified flying objects George M.
