Alawis Syria Politics Conflicts Societies:

Armed Organizations and Political Elites in Civil Wars Erwin van Veen, 2024-06-03 This book analyses under what conditions and with what developmental effects armed organizations shift their coercive profile during civil wars with a focus on the recent conflicts in Syria and Iraq The work begins with an operationalisation of the term political settlement focusing on how power is organized in fragile and conflict affected countries and then uses this operationalization to analyse the political settlements of contemporary Syria and Iraq including their breakdown and transformation during recent civil wars of 2011 today in Syria and 2014 17 in Iraq It subsequently examines why and how elite factions have used armed organizations in times of conflict This approach links an understanding of the broad evolution of power relations at the national level with the specific effects of the use of armed organizations on such relations It argues for a shift from assigning fixed labels to armed organizations during civil wars to studying their coercive profile in a dynamic fashion i e how armed organizations behave in terms of their use of threats and coercive force The book introduces five profiles of coercive behaviour that demonstrate how the same organization can behave very differently at various points in time One of these the hybrid coercive profile fills a gap in the existing civil war typology of organized armed violence by opening up the possibility of elite factions deliberately combining collaborative and competitive modes of behaviour As an evidence base the book provides in depth analysis of the origins evolution and operations of four armed organizations that have acted under a hybrid coercive profile during the Syrian and Iraqi civil wars the Syrian Kurdish People s Defence Forces the Eagles of the Whirlwind of the Syrian Social Nationalist Party the Iraqi Kurdish Peshmerga and the Badr Organization By connecting the concepts of political settlement and civil war and applying them to specific armed organizations operating in Syria and Iraq the book offers new insights into this nexus This book will be of much interest to students of civil wars conflict studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations

The ^AOxford Handbook of Politics in Muslim Societies Melani Cammett, Pauline Jones, 2022-02-22 The Oxford Handbook of Politics in Muslim Societies examines a wide range of topics concerning regimes and regime change electoral politics political attitudes and behavior beyond voting social mobilization economic performance and development outcomes and social welfare and governance The Handbook shifts focus away from the Arab world as the barometer of politics in the Muslim world recognizing that the Islamic world spans several regions including Africa Southeast Asia South Asia and Central Asia This expanded geography enables a thorough investigation of which relationships if any hold across Muslim majority states in different regions of the world

The Alawis of Syria Michael Kerr, Craig Larkin, 2015 A wide ranging exploration of the cultural and historical hinterland of Syria s powerful Shia minority

Islamists and the Politics of the Arab Uprisings Hendrik Kraetzschmar, 2018-06-30 Demonstrates how the textual output of settler emigration shapes the nineteenth century literary and artistic imagination

Syria After the Uprisings Joseph Daher, 2020-02-22 Syria has been at the center of world news since 2011 following the beginnings of a popular uprising in the country and its subsequent violent and murderous repression by the Assad regime Eight years on Joseph Daher analyzes the resilience of the regime and the failings of the uprising while also taking a closer look at the counter revolutionary processes that have been undermining the uprising from without and within Joseph Daher is the author of Hezbollah The Political Economy of the Party of God and founder of the blog Syria Freedom Forever Conflict Propaganda in Syria Oliver Boyd-Barrett,2021-12-28 This book investigates rival narratives about the conflict in Syria from 2011 onwards It examines the starkly different narratives about the Syrian conflict told by mainly Western mainstream and alternative media and contrasts these narratives with the equally polarized but more nuanced narratives of mainly Western scholars and long form journalists Differences of narrative concerning the conflict include what is deemed relevant context in trying to explain the war whether the war is best seen as a civil conflict or as a proxy war fought among external powers the degree of emphasis given to the alleged crimes of the Syrian regime as opposed to the alleged violence of Salafist militia the accuracy of the origin story of the conflict in Daraa the extent to which the initial protestors were secular campaigners calling for democracy or whether they were Muslim extremists seeking a sectarian society governed by sharia law Several case studies of propaganda institutions are examined here including the journalism of Marie Colvin the role of government funded NGOs the controversies surrounding each of three major instances of alleged regime use of chemical weapons and the politicization of the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons OPCW This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies propaganda studies Middle Eastern politics and International Relations in general The Societies of the Middle East and North Africa Sean Yom,2021-07-21 The second edition of this well regarded volume explores the societies of the Middle East and North Africa Presenting original studies written by the world s leading MENA scholars it sheds light upon the organizing structures human vulnerabilities and dynamic forces that propel social change among the peoples of the Arab world as well as Israel Turkey and Iran The volume can be used in conjunction with The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa textbook for a comprehensive overview of the region Carrying over from the previous edition among the rich topics covered are agriculture urbanization development identity citizenship gender religion civil society the environment and youths This second edition adds two new chapters on refugees and public opinion as each constitutes a crucial part of the region s social and cultural context This edition also updates existing chapters to account for the latest events and trends including the COVID 19 pandemic popular protests and demographic growth Written in an accessible way the chapters are clearly structured and contain insightful analysis memorable case studies illustrative photographs and visualized data that illuminate the contours of social life across this diverse region Each chapter also ends with curated questions for discussion followed by annotated bibliographies to help spark further research to encourage seamless adoption into classrooms Migrant Lives Erkan Tümkaya,2023-12-29 The Alawi community constitutes one of the oldest secret communities originating in what is known today as the Middle East

Today the community members are scattered over many different countries around the world The first Alawis came to Germany as Gastarbeiter guest workers in the 1960s following bilateral labour agreements between Turkey and Germany The present book explores the multifaceted experiences of Alawiness during the post migration period in Germany The book demonstrates the pervasiveness of the practice of secrecy in the various spheres of Alawi migrant life in Germany Throughout this book it becomes evident that living at the nexus of being an Alawi and a migrant generates a set of experiences that are shaped by the accelerated sociocultural political economic and technological developments in Germany but also in the countries of origin The focus of this book is on identification practices the practices of secrecy the dynamics of interethnic social relations and the religious practices of Turkish Alawi men and women in present day Germany The book traces in particular the stories of the new generations of Alawis whose experiences have largely remained ignored

Strategic Forum ,1994 The Struggle for Power in Syria Nikolaos Van Dam,2011-05-30 In the midst of turmoil in the Middle East and in the face of protests and demonstrations from Homs to Damascus and other places all over Syria the Ba th Party and Bashar al Asad are truly caught up in a struggle to hold onto power in Syria In this important book Nikolaos van Dam explores and explains how the Asad dynasty has come to rule Syria for about half a century and keep the complex patchwork of minorities factions and opponents securely under control for such an unprecedented long period Through an in depth examination of the role of sectarian regional and tribal loyalties van Dam traces developments within the Ba th party and the military and civilian power elite from the 1963 Ba thist takeover up to the present day
