Nordhoff'S West Coast Nordhoff,2013-01-11 Published in the year 1987 Nordhoff S West Coast is a valuable contribution to the field of Social Science and Anthropology Astoria Washington Irving,1987 Pacific Tales Becke,2013-01-11 George Lewis Becke 1848 1913 was an Australian short story writer and novelist He began his voyages in the south seas at a very early age and there are two accounts of these beginnings one by the Earl of Pembroke who presumably obtained his information from Becke which is prefixed to By Reef and Palm 1894 and the other written by Becke It is difficult to reconcile them and all that is certain is that Becke spent many years on vessels trading in the Pacific islands Becke went to London and he remained in Europe for about 15 years during which time a large number of collections of short stories and a few novels and stories for boys were published He was fairly paid by the magazines for his stories but he always sold his books outright About 30 of Becke s books are listed in Miller s Australian Literature with six other volumes written in collaboration with W J Jeffery Among Becke s books are The Naval Pioneers of Australia 1899 and By Rock and Pool on an Austral Shore and Other Stories 1901 The Statesman's Year Book: 1992-93 B. Hunter,2016-12-29 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Statesman's Year-Book 1983-84 J. Paxton,2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Work, Class, and Power in the Borderlands of the Early American Pacific Evan Lampe,2013-12-12 This book traces the history of working people who helped established the foundation of the American empire in the Pacific from its origins after the American Revolution to its coming of age in the 1840s and 1850s Beginning with the expeditions of the Columbia and the Lady Washington Lampe argues that the early American Pacific can best be considered through the interaction of four major locations connected through the networks of trade the merchant ship the Northwest Coast Honolulu and Canton Guangzhou In each of these locations the labors of a diverse population of working people was harnessed in the critical labors of empire building including the transportation of goods The central question that the consideration of working people in the Pacific economy during this period is Lampe argues the role of power applied on these laborers by an international capitalist class emerging alongside the Pacific commercial empires Lampe also finds that this power was not uncontested and emerged in response to the activities of labor Working people on the ship and in the port cities found ways to secure their piece of the profitable trade often through illicit means Lycra Kaori O'Connor,2011-04-06 The Anthropology of Stuff is part of a new Series dedicated to innovative unconventional ways to connect undergraduate students and their lived concerns about our social world to the power of social science ideas and evidence Our goal with the project is to help spark social science imaginations and in doing so new avenues for meaningful thought and action Each Stuff title is a short 100 page mini text illuminating for students the network of people and activities that create their material world Lycra describes the development of a specific fabric but in the process provides students with rare insights into U S corporate history the changing image of women in America and how a seemingly doomed product came to occupy a position never imagined by its inventors and contained in the wardrobe of virtually every American And it will generate lively discussion of the story of the relationship between technology science and society over the past half a century The Statesman's Year-Book 1980-81
