and finally find true love in this hilarious nod to 1950s lesbian pulp fiction Having recently moved both herself and her formidable perfume bottle collection into a tiny bungalow in Los Angeles mid list author Astrid Dahl finds herself back in the Zoom writer s group she cofounded Sapphic Scribes after an incident that leaves her and her career lightly canceled But she temporarily forgets all that by throwing herself into a few sexy distractions like Ivy a grad student researching 1950s lesbian pulp who smells like metallic orchids or her new neighbor Penelope who smells like patchouli Penelope a painter living off Urban Outfitters settlement money immediately ingratiates herself in Astrid s life bonding with her best friends and family just as Astrid and Ivy begin to date in person Astrid feels judged and threatened by Penelope a responsible older vegan but also finds her irresistibly sexy When Astrid receives an unexpected call from her agent with the news that actress and influencer Kat Gold wants to adapt her previous novel for TV Astrid finally has a chance to resurrect her waning career But the pressure causes Astrid s worst vice to rear its head the Patricia Highsmith a blend of Adderall alcohol and cigarettes and results in blackouts and a disturbing series of events Unapologetically feminine yet ribald steamy yet hilarious Anna Dorn has crafted an exquisite homage to the lesbian pulp of yore reclaiming it for our internet and celebrity obsessed world With notes of Southern California citrus and sultry smokiness Perfume and Pain is a satirical romp through Hollywood and lesbian melodrama

Ethics in Culture Astrid Erll,Herbert Grabes,Ansgar Nünning,2008-08-27 Alongside the recent cultural turn in the humanities there has been a noticeable return to ethical considerations With regard to literature as well as other media this has rekindled awareness of a tension antagonism or even disparity between ethics and aesthetics This volume of articles takes a more systematic and cross disciplinary approach to the widely mooted ethical turn in literature and other media than has been pursued so far It brings together a wide range of critical perspectives from literary studies media and cultural memory studies and philosophy tracing the complex and sometimes conflicting relationship between ethics and aesthetics in theoretical contexts and individual case studies as diverse as colonial architecture nineteenth century literary histories and postmodern writing and art
