Development, Social Change and Environmental Sustainability Sumarmi, Nanda Meiji, Joan Purwasih, Abdul Kodir, Edo Andriesse, Dorina Ilies, Ken Miichi, 2021-06-24 Nowadays the concept of SDGs Sustainable Development Goals is starting to replace the concept of MDGs Millennium Developmental Goals It is a global goal adopted by all United Nations member states It emphasizes the idea that the development of every country can only be achieved by balancing other factors such as social economic and environmental sustainability It is already clear how sustainable development works with environmental ethics and management However there are still issues regarding the sustainable development and human well being Sustainable development should focus on finding a way for society to meet their present needs for the long term without sacrificing the ability of future generations to meet their needs This international seminar provides research results and literature regarding the topic of sustainable development concept the dynamics of sustainable development and social change and environmental sustainability The international seminar entitled 1st International Conference on Contemporary Sociology and Educational Transformation listed speakers from several countries providing an overview on human and environmental resilience This book contains a selection of papers presented at the conference

Malaysian Media Studies: Integrating Perspectives (UM Press) Azizah Hamzah, Amira Firdaus, 2016 This edited volume revisits developments in the field of media education and media studies at a time when society is experiencing a ubiquitous networked digital media environment Rapid advances in media and communication technologies and the accompanying developments in social cultural political and economic realms pose unexpected challenges to the curricula of long established media and communication schools As opposed to rigidly structured nation based mass media systems of the past century the new global media sphere celebrates the breaking down of borders whether spatial cultural or social Today in the second half of the second decade of the 21st century this problem translates into what and how to teach students of media who in all likelihood are more adept media consumers and producers than their teachers In a region where educational institutions and educators don't transform as fast as media technologies do there is a need to problematize and to reflect upon the situation

This edited volume examines critical issues related to media studies at local institutions of higher learning and includes a sampling of research charting new directions in local media scholarship Contributions to this edited volume reflect the shared concerns of media educators and researchers in Malaysia and two neighboring countries Indonesia and Thailand Three main themes underscore this volume reflecting their importance to the evolution of media education and to a certain extent research as well Historical development of media education and training Current developments and future trajectories of media education in a globalized digital media environment Analysis of media and society
