Ecologies of Translation in East and South East Asia, 1600-1900 Li Guo, Patricia Sieber, Peter Kornicki, 2025-10-01 This ground breaking volume on early modern inter Asian translation examines how translation from plain Chinese was situated at the nexus between on the one hand the traditional standard of biliteracy characteristic of literary practices in the Sinographic sphere and on the other practices of translational multilingualism competence in multiple spoken languages to produce a fully localized target text. Translations from plain Chinese are shown to carve out new ecologies of translations that not only enrich our understanding of early modern translation practices across the Sinographic sphere but also demonstrate that the transregional uses of a non alphabetic graphic technology call for different models of translation theory.

Knowledge and the Indian Ocean Sara Keller, 2018-09-11 This volume examines Western India's contributions to the spread of ideas, beliefs and other intangible ties across the Indian Ocean world. The region, particularly Gujarat and Bombay, is well established in the Indian imaginary and in scholarship as a mercantile hub. These essays move beyond this identity to examine the region as a dynamic place of learning and a host of knowledge tracing the flow of knowledge, aesthetic sensibilities, values, memories and genetic programs. Contributors traverse the fields of history, anthropology, agriculture, botany, medicine, sociology and more to offer path breaking perspectives on Western India's deep socio cultural impact across the centuries. Western India emerges as a pivotal region in the maritime world as a transmitter of knowledge Invisible Cultures Francesco Carrer, Viola Gheller, 2015-10-05 Cultural and social groups whose outlines are difficult to identify are often considered invisible Occasionally material remains compensate for the absence of historiographical records or literary sources concerning these groups sometimes communities or individuals mentioned in literary sources do not appear to have left material signs of their presence On the other hand there are groups or individuals whose existence has to be assumed in every historical period even though they are invisible in both historiography and archaeology Before trying to understand the lifestyle and historical agency of these invisible cultures it is necessary to highlight the reasons why the memory of certain marginalized individuals or socio cultural units disappeared or was obliterated in material culture and in literary sources The postgraduate conference Invisible Cultures Historical and Archaeological Perspectives brought together young scholars from various backgrounds and research interests to discuss these issues This volume presents the results of this debate through a series of selected papers from various interdisciplinary perspectives which analyse a variety of case studies leading to the identification of new theoretical and methodological perspectives aimed at returning voice and presence to the invisibles of history
