Askari A Story Of Collaboration And Betrayal In The Anti Apartheid Struggle:

Askari Jacob Dlamini, 2015 In 1986 Comrade September a charismatic ANC operative and popular MK commander was abducted from Swaziland by the apartheid security police and taken across the border After torture and interrogation September was turned and before long the police had extracted enough information to hunt down and kill some of his former comrades September underwent changes that marked him for the rest of his life from resister to collaborator insurgent to counter insurgent revolutionary to counter revolutionary and to his former comrades hero to traitor Askari is the story of these changes in an individual s life and of the larger neglected history of betrayal and collaboration in the struggle against apartheid It seeks to understand why September made the choices he did collaborating with his captors turning against the ANC and then hunting down his comrades without excusing those choices It looks beyond the black and white that still dominates South Africa s political canvas to examine the grey zones in which South Africans combatants and non combatants lived Publisher

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Emancipatory and Participatory Methodologies in Peace, Critical, and Community Psychology Mohamed Seedat, Shahnaaz Suffla, Daniel J. Christie, 2017-10-17 Offering a unique set of case studies that invites readers to question and reimagine the concept of community engagement this collected work provides an overview and analysis of numerous creative participatory research methods designed to improve well being at both the individual and societal level In a world where there are enormous differences in the wealth and health of people it is increasingly recognized that sustainable peace requires both a broad based public commitment to nonviolence combined with noticeable increments in the wellbeing of people who occupy the lowest socioeconomic strata of societies This volume focuses on the latter how to use qualitative research methods to improve well being of research participants and thus the wider society The participatory research examples described in these chapters are meant to encourage researchers scholars and practitioners to question assumed knowledge about community engagement research and practice and to inspire social justice oriented scholarship The cases studies and methods portrayed are as varied as the situations and cultures in which they take place In most of the case studies the personal is linked to the political with a social justice imperative as participants from marginalized communities express an understanding of their own position within power hierarchies deconstruct power relations and experience a sense of agency In other instances the methods are no less participatory but the aim is more focused on inner and outer harmony psychological wellbeing conflict resolution and intergroup reconciliation In all the cases studies there is a strong emphasis on methods in which community members are at the center of efforts to promote social change The methods described include group storytelling community arts asset mapping dialogues creative writing embroidery filmmaking Photovoice writing back to power and other means of engaging in emancipatory praxis and promoting personal wellbeing Taken together the chapters illustrate creative ways in which community members embedded in disadvantaged contexts can engage in a dynamic process that stimulates individual and collective agency Ultimately this volume will provide readers with a deeper understanding of a wide range of creative qualitative research methods and will encourage establishment of an effective social justice agenda essential to human wellbeing and sustainable peace

An African Volk Jamie Miller, 2016-09-20 An African Volk explores how the apartheid state sought to maintain power as the world of white empire gave way to a new post colonial environment that repudiated racial hierarchy collaboration reading narrative non fiction across South Africa s unfinished transition Over the last decades South Africa has seen an outpouring of life writing and narrative non fiction Authors like Panashe Chigumadzi Jacob Dlamini Mark Gevisser Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Antjie Krog Sisonke Msimang Njabulo Ndebele Jonny Steinberg and Ivan Vladislavic have produced a compelling and often controversial body of work exploring the country s ongoing political and social transition with great ambition texture and risk Experiments with Truth is the first book length account of non fiction in South African literature It reads the country s transition as refracted through an array of documentary modes that are simultaneously refashioned and blurred into each other long form analytic journalism and reportage experiments in oral history microhistory and archival reconstruction life writing memoir and the essay It traces the strange and ethically complex process by which real people places and events are shuffled patterned and plotted in long form prose narrative While holding in mind the imperatives of testimony and witness so important to the struggle for liberation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the case studies here are increasingly drawn to a post TRC aesthetic works that engage with difficult inappropriate or unusable elements of the past and the unfinished project of social reconstruction in South Africa The author examines non fictions that are speculative formally innovative and sometimes experimental rather than informational or narrowly journalistic that explore difficult subjects like collaboration complicity confession and have embedded within them their own reflections on the problems of narrating within a scene of unresolved difference In this way southern African materials are placed in a global context and in dialogue with other important non fictional traditions that have emerged at moments of social rupture and transition Hedley Twidle is a writer teacher and researcher based in the English Department at the University of Cape Town He specialises in twentieth century southern African and world literatures as well as creative non fiction and the environmental humanities His essay collection Firepool Experiences in an Abnormal World was published in 2017

The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021-11-18

While sharing some characteristics with other middle income countries South Africa is a country with a unique economic history and distinctive economic features It is a regional economic powerhouse that plays a significant role not only in southern Africa and in the continent but also as a member of BRICS However there has been a lack of structural transformation and weak economic growth and South Africa faces the profound triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment Any meaningful debate about economic policies to address these challenges needs to be informed by a deep understanding of historical developments robust empirical evidence and rigorous analysis of South Africa s complex economic landscape This volume seeks to provide a wide ranging set of original detailed and state of the art analytical perspectives that contribute to scientific knowledge as well as to well informed and productive discourse on the South African economy While concentrating on the more recent economic issues facing South Africa the handbook also provides historical and political context It offers an in depth examination of strategic issues in the country s key economic sectors and brings together diverse analytical perspectives Shoot to Kill Christopher McMichael, 2022-09-01 Shoot to Kill Police and Power in South Africa is a vivid and ambitious survey of the complex politics of security crime and social control in South Africa Nearly three decades after the formal end of apartheid policing in South Africa continues to be defined by brutality incompetence and corruption Featuring unapologetic critiques of elite power and the stifling politics of fear while informed by global discussions on police abolition Shoot to Kill Police and Power in South Africa calls for a society based on democracy and justice Author Christopher McMichael speaks to the realities of our world increasingly defined by militarised injustice and outlines ways we can escape from this rusty cage A Love Letter to the Many Vishwas Satgar, 2024-07-01 South Africa was the hope of the world It had an impressive and rich tradition of left politics At the heart of post apartheid democracy making was a revolutionary nationalist ANC the oldest Communist Party in Africa the SACP and one of the most militant labour union federations in the world COSATU Yet South Africa is at a crossroads and many are deeply concerned about its future This book explains through a political economy ecology analysis why and how the degeneration of national liberation politics has happened while making praxis centered arguments for a new transformative left politics A Prophet of the People Lauren V. Jarvis, 2024-03-01 In 1910 Isaiah Shembe was struggling He had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a Baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show Little did he know that he would soon establish the Nazareth Church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in South Africa By his death in 1935 Shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the Black people In A Prophet of the People Isaiah Shembe and the Making of a South African Church historian Lauren V Jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of South Africa's most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern South Africa Following Shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts Jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of Christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape South Africa today
