Assumed Identity Romantic Europe Fought:

An Assumed Identity Ron Mills, 2015-12-17 A World War Two romance in the air Set in the air forces defending Europe a young Rhodesian makes his way through the war with many happy and sorrowful moments along the way The Idea of Europe in British Travel Narratives, 1789-1914 Katarina Gephardt, 2016-03-03 The nineteenth century was the heyday of travel with Britons continually reassessing their own culture in relation to not only the colonized but also other Europeans especially the ones that they encountered on the southern and eastern peripheries of the continent Offering illustrative case studies Katarina Gephardt shows how specific rhetorical strategies used in contemporary travel writing produced popular fictional representations of continental Europe in the works of Ann Radcliffe Lord Byron Charles Dickens and Bram Stoker She examines a wide range of autobiographical and fictional travel narratives to demonstrate that the imaginative geographies underpinning British ideas of Europe emerged from the spaces between fact and fiction Adding texture to her study are her analyses of the visual dimensions of cross cultural representation and of the role of evolving technologies in defining a shared set of rhetorical strategies Gephardt argues that British writers envisioned their country simultaneously as distinct from the Continent and as a part of Europe anticipating the contradictory British discourse around European integration that involves both fear that the European super state will violate British sovereignty and a desire to play a more central role in the European Union EPPP Step One Exam Review Anne L. leads to a narrow approach to conflict relationships built around an Us vs Them distance from the enemy in which their submission is achieved through kinetic effects and their subsequent redemption through our good works reconstruction Vlahos contends that America's difficult engagement in the Muslim world demonstrates urgently that different operational approaches and tactics like counterinsurgency are not enough Alternative paradigms of strategic engagement are needed but their very consideration requires deeper cultural rethinking about how we assess world change and other cultures and how our national ethos makes war Why are terrorists and insurgents we fight so formidable Their strength and our vulnerability is in identity Clausewitz knew that Geist spirit was always stronger than the material identity is power in war But how can non state actors face up to nation states The answer is in globalization This is the West's 3rd globalization Two centuries of intense mixing has torn down old ways of life and created a growing demand for new belonging There is also a decline in US universalism America's vision as history's anointed prophet and manager is now competing head to head with renewed universal visions Like Late Antiquity and the High Middle Ages our globalization begins to subside We may be in the later days of American modernity We can see this worldwide as emerging local communities within states and meta movements find their voice through conflict and war Identities struggling for realization are always the most powerful Add the diffusion of new technology and new practice and even the poorest and seemingly most primitive group can now make war against those on high They are successful because of a symbiotic fit between old states and new identities Increasingly old societies no longer find identity celebration in war while non state identities embrace the struggle for realization Hence non state wars with America become a mythic narrative for them Our engagement actually helps them realize identity and we become the midwife This book offers another path to deal with non state challenges one that does not further weaken us Great Britain and the Creation of Yugoslavia James Evans, 2008-07-30 The final weeks of World War I saw a revolutionary upheaval in Europe as old empires collapsed and new self proclaimed nation states emerged in their place For its advocates the Yugoslav state created in 1918 represented a largely uniform culture and identity But as its official name the Kingdom of the Serbs Croats and Slovenes suggested its population was by no means homogeneous Too late the British who had been instrumental in the birth of the state at Versailles as well as other Europeans and the Americans came to appreciate that divisions of religious affiliation and historical tradition continued to override linguistic unity James Evans analyses British ideas and assumptions about the region's history and culture and assesses how these were reshaped by newly prevalent ideas about Yugoslav nationality Attitudes and preconceptions first formed during this period would prove remarkably enduring making their mark on British responses to events in Yugoslavia throughout the country's troubled history Great Britain and the Creation of Yugoslavia sheds valuable light not only on attitudes to Yugoslav nationality in the early 20th century but also on western responses to the violent demise of the Yugoslav state at the century's close Deception: An Interdisciplinary Exploration Emma Williams, Iman Sheeha, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter

Disciplinary Press in 2015 The topic of deception is an area of study that has fascinated researchers and readers alike for generations From infamous tales of espionage and conspiracy to the targeted deception of illusionists and magicians and notorious examples of deceptive statements and actions in public life the concept of deception is widely recognised by the general public The pervasive nature of deception and deceit permeating all facets of life from the annals of history to the present day means that it is an area of research that benefits substantially from an approach that crosses conventional academic and research boundaries This collection represents an interdisciplinary exploration of the concept of deception expanding the readers awareness and understanding of a range of areas including the portrayal of deception in literature and spy fiction the existence and success of literary hoaxes deception and illusion in visual art and the use of deception in both strategic and interpersonal contexts

Colorblind Shakespeare Ayanna Thompson, 2006-09-12 The systematic practice of non traditional or colorblind casting began with Joseph Papp s New York Shakespeare Festival in the 1950s Although colorblind casting has been practiced for half a century now it still inspires vehement controversy and debate This collection of fourteen original essays explores both the production history of colorblind casting in cultural terms and the theoretical implications of this practice for reading Shakespeare in a contemporary context

National Poetry, Empires and War David Aberbach, 2016-09-13 Nationalism has given the world a genre of poetry bright with ideals of justice freedom and the brotherhood of man but also at times burning with humiliation and grievance hatred and lust for revenge driving human kind as the Austrian poet Grillparzer put it From humanity via nationality to bestiality National Poetry Empires and War considers national poetry and its glorification of war from ancient to modern times in a series of historical social and political perspectives Starting with the Hebrew Bible and Homer and moving through the Crusades and examples of subsequent empires this book has much on pre modern national poetry but focuses chiefly on post 1789 poetry which emerged from the weakening and collapse of empires as the idealistic liberalism of nationalism in the age of Byron Whitman D Annunzio Yeats Bialik and Kipling was replaced by darker purposes culminating in World War I and the rise of fascism Many national poets are the subject of countless critical and biographical studies but this book aims to give a panoramic view of national poetry as a whole It will be of great interest to any scholars of nationalism Jewish Studies history comparative literature and general cultural studies

Romantic Localities Christoph Bode, Jacqueline Labbe, 2015-10-06 Romantic Localities explores the ways in which Romantic period writers of varying nationalities responded to languages landscapes both geographical and metaphorical and literatures

The Dawn Volume II Debra Milligan, 2012 The year is 1940 France falls The battle for liberation begins covertly and within the minds and hearts of French patriots The Battle for France will one day begin but the fight for freedom that endless quest for liberty is well underway Resistance in all of its forms will take on the very meaning of life as ordinary citizens smuggle Jewish orphans out of France print clandestine newspapers and undertake reconnaissance armed engagement and sabotage against the enemy The fierce need of the human will for liberty is pitted against the

tyrannies of evil and the battle for freedom is joined Set within the myriad landscapes of wartime France and England THE DAWN is the story of a French aristocrat a U S Army colonel and the woman they love It is a tale of treachery and timeless heroism THE DAWN chronicles the unforgettable dramas of the dark years in France 1940 1944 The story unfolds like the forbidden Tricolore against the backdrop of war death love birth history and the illusion of peace The major characters are Camille Richarde Those two spheres of her life in Roussillon overt and covert public and secret legal and illegal created a balance within this Frenchwoman that greatly aided her in adjusting to life in Provence Camille quickly forgot the calibrated existence that she d left behind in Paris The exigencies of life in Roussillon filled her with more than lists in her mind of things to do They filled her days and nights with meaning this profound sense of fulfillment which had theretofore eluded her Camille began to see that a life filled with activity suggests purpose but busyness can conceal emptiness within Guillaume de Vallon He therefore took his first tentative steps away from the life of a French aristocrat He only vaguely perceived before him the passage which extended like a huge open hand of freedom He knew that he could say nothing of these ominous visions and misty reveries to anyone In time he would speak to Camille of the truths that moved him now with defiance duty and a degree of despondence For the present Guillaume understood that this Frenchwoman and child formed the unspoken nucleus of his new life Shelter them he would or he would fail miserably at all that he sought to achieve with his new life this embryo of self just hours old Arthur Carmichael His essence bespoke a dignity a grace a formal masculinity that was as magnetic as it was magnetizing Artur marched with his boots as if the path before him was preordained The certitude and calm assurance of his movements soothed this woman even as they seduced her She had never walked beside anyone and especially a man who evinced this much purpose and decisiveness but whose resolve was wrapped in velvet He was a man of strong will determination and dominance He could also be gentle To Camille his kindness and patience signified that his passions ran deep She also sensed that his will was even stronger since it was capable of bending or if need be being bent
